

HB 341 -- LIFE INSURANCE SUICIDE EXCLUSION

SPONSOR: Shull (16)

Currently, life insurance companies can exclude coverage for suicide for one year after the issuance of a policy. This bill adds the exclusion to any additional riders, endorsements, or amendments added.

Any life insurance policy that has lapsed and then been reinstated can exclude coverage for suicide for one year from reinstatement.