

HB 1171 -- ETHICS

SPONSOR: Razer

This bill requires statewide elected officials conducting out of state travel that is paid for or compensated by any other person or individual and that is related to state business to provide specified information to the Missouri Ethics Commission on a monthly basis and make the information available to the public.

The bill also requires the Governor to reimburse the state for private use of state airplanes in a manner to be implemented by the Missouri Office of Administration.