5 subdivision (2) or (3) of subsection 1 of section 211.031 and by a guardian ad litem in all
6 proceedings under subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of section 211.031.

7 2. The court shall appoint counsel for a child prior to the filing of a petition if a request is 8 made therefor to the court and the court finds that the child is the subject of a juvenile court 9 proceeding and that the child making the request is indigent.

10 3. (1) When a petition has been filed under subdivision (2) or (3) of subsection 1 of section 11 211.031, the court shall appoint counsel for the child except if private counsel has entered his or her 12 appearance on behalf of the child or if counsel has been waived in accordance with law; except that 13 counsel shall not be waived for any proceeding specified under subsection 10 of this section.

14 (2) If a child waives his or her right to counsel, such waiver shall be made in open court and 15 be recorded and in writing. In determining whether a child has knowingly, intelligently, and

27 6. Counsel shall serve for all stages of the proceedings, including appeal, unless relieved by 28 the court for good cause shown. If no appeal is taken, services of counsel are terminated following 29 the entry of an order of disposition.

30 7. The child and his custodian may be represented by the same counsel except where a 31 conflict of interest exists. Where it appears to the court that a conflict exists, it shall order that the 32 child and his custodian be represented by separate counsel, and it shall appoint counsel if required 33 by subsection 3 or 4 of this section.

34 8. When a petition has been filed, a child may waive his or her right to counsel only with 35 the approval of the court and if such waiver is not prohibited under subsection 10 of this section. If
