21 commission deems advisable.~~

~~22 ——— The commission shall reapportion the senatorial districts by dividing the population of 23 the state by the number thirty-four and shall establish each district so that the population of that 24 district shall, as nearly as possible, equal that figure; no county lines shall be crossed except

29 multi-district county.~~

39 reapportionment is made as herein provided, except that if the statement is not filed within six~~

40 ~~months of the time fixed for the appointment of the commission, it shall stand discharged and~~

43 ~~whom shall sign and file its apportionment plan and map with the secretary of state within ninety~~ 44 ~~days of the date of the discharge of the apportionment commission. Thereafter senators shall be~~ 45 ~~elected according to such districts until a reapportionment is made as herein provided.~~

46 ~~Each member of the commission shall receive as compensation fifteen dollars a day for~~

86 (2) (a) The general assembly shall, in the year 2021 and in each year immediately 87 following the United States decennial census, determine the number of senators and 88 representatives to be elected to the general assembly, establish state senatorial and 89 representative districts, and establish the United States Congressional districts as provided 90 in this section.

91 (b) The state shall be apportioned into senatorial and representative districts 92 established on the basis of population, and into districts corresponding with the number 93 of representatives for the United States Congress.

94 (c) Each district so established shall be composed of contiguous territory as 95 compact as possible.

96 (d) In establishing senatorial and representative districts, the state shall be divided 97 into as many senatorial districts as there are members of the senate and into as many 98 representative districts as there are members of the house of representatives. One senator 99 shall be elected from each senatorial district and one representative shall be elected from 100 each representative district.

101 (e) The redistricting division shall, if necessary in establishing senatorial districts, 103 so terminated shall be compensated for the uncompleted part of the term.

104 (f) The general assembly shall complete the apportionment before September first 106 fifteenth of such year as required by this section, the supreme court shall cause the state 107 to be apportioned into senatorial and representative districts to comply with the 108 requirements of the constitution before December thirty-first of such year as provided in 109 this section.

110 (g) Upon verified application by any qualified elector, the supreme court shall 111 review an apportionment plan adopted by the general assembly. If the supreme court 112 determines such plan does not comply with the requirements of the constitution, the court 113 shall within ninety days adopt the apportionment plan created by the redistricting division 114 with the smallest overall range percentage variances that complies with the requirements 115 of the constitution. The supreme court shall have original jurisdiction of all litigation 116 questioning the apportionment of the general assembly or any apportionment plan adopted 117 by the general assembly.

118 (h) The establishment of senatorial and representative districts and the 119 apportionment required under this section shall be accomplished by the redistricting 120 division.

121 (i) In establishing Congressional districts, the state shall be divided into the number 122 of districts to which it is entitled and those districts shall be contiguous territory as 123 compact and as nearly equal in population as possible.

124 2. (1) The redistricting division shall acquire appropriate information, review and 125 evaluate available facilities, and develop programs and procedures in preparation for 126 drawing legislative redistricting plans on the basis of each United States decennial census.
127 No funds shall be expended for the purchase or lease of equipment and materials except 128 funds that are appropriated for such purposes, and such funds shall be expended only with 129 prior approval of the joint committee on legislative research.

130 (2) By December thirty-first of each year ending in zero, the redistricting division 131 shall obtain from the United States Bureau of the Census information regarding 132 geographic and political units in this state for which United States decennial census 133 population data has been gathered and will be tabulated. The redistricting division shall 134 use the data so obtained to:

135 (a) Prepare necessary descriptions of geographic and political units for which 136 census data will be reported, and that are suitable for use as components of legislative 137 districts; and

138 (b) Prepare maps of counties, cities, and other geographic units within the state that 139 may be used to illustrate the locations of legislative district boundaries proposed in plans 140 drawn in accordance with subsection 4 of this section.

141 (3) As soon as possible after January first of each year ending in one, the 142 redistricting division shall obtain from the United States Bureau of the Census the 143 population data needed for legislative redistricting that the Bureau is required to provide 144 to this state under United States P. L. No. 94-171, and shall use that data to assign a 145 population figure based upon certified United States decennial census data to each 146 geographic or political unit described in paragraph (a) of subdivision (2) of this subsection.

147 Upon completing that task, the redistricting division shall begin the preparation of 148 legislative redistricting plans as required by this section.

149 (4) Any census information required by the redistricting division under this section 150 may be obtained from or with the assistance of any entity created by state law for receiving 151 and maintaining such information from the Bureau of the Census.

152 (5) Upon each delivery by the redistricting division to the general assembly of a bill 153 embodying a plan under subsection 3 of this section, the redistricting division shall at the 154 earliest feasible time make available to the public the following information:

155 (a) Copies of the bill delivered by the redistricting division to the general assembly;

156 (b) Maps illustrating the plan;

157 (c) A summary of the standards prescribed by subsection 4 of this section for 158 development of the plan; and 159 (d) A statement of the population of each district included in the plan and the 160 relative deviation of each district population from the ideal district population.

161 3. (1) (a) Not later than April first of each year ending in one, the redistricting 162 division shall deliver to the secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house of 163 representatives identical bills embodying a plan of legislative redistricting prepared in 164 accordance with subsection 4 of this section. The general assembly shall bring the bill to 165 a vote in either the senate or the house of representatives expeditiously, but not less than 166 three days after the report of the commission required by subdivision (3) of subsection 5 167 of this section is received and made available to the members of the general assembly, 168 under a procedure or rule permitting no amendments except those of a purely corrective 169 nature. If the bill is approved by the first chamber in which it is considered, it shall 170 expeditiously be brought to a vote in the second chamber under a similar procedure or 171 rule. If the bill embodying the plan submitted by the redistricting division under this 172 subdivision fails to be approved by a constitutional majority in either the senate or the 173 house of representatives, the secretary of the senate or the chief clerk of the house, as the 174 case may be, shall at once, but in no event later than seven days after the date the bill failed 175 to be approved, transmit to the redistricting division information that the senate or house 176 may direct by resolution regarding the reasons the plan was not approved.

177 (b) If the population data for legislative redistricting that the United States Bureau 178 of the Census are required to provide this state under P. L. No. 94-171 and, if used by the 179 redistricting division, the corresponding topologically integrated geographic encoding and 180 referencing data file for that population data are not available to the redistricting division 181 on or before February fifteenth of the year ending in one, the dates set forth in paragraph

182 (a) of this subdivision shall be extended by a number of days equal to the number of days
183 after February fifteenth of the year ending in one that the United States decennial census 184 population data and the topologically integrated geographic encoding and referencing data 185 file for legislative redistricting become available.

186 (2) If the bill embodying the plan submitted by the redistricting division under 187 subdivision (1) of this subsection fails to be enacted, the redistricting division shall prepare 188 a bill embodying a second plan of legislative redistricting. The bill shall be prepared in 189 accordance with subsection 4 of this section and, insofar as it is possible to do so within the 190 requirements of subsection 4 of this section, with the reasons cited by the senate or house 191 of representatives by resolution for the failure to approve the plan. If a second plan is 192 required under this subdivision, the bill embodying it shall be delivered to the secretary 193 of the senate and the chief clerk of the house of representatives not later than thirty-five 194 days after the date of the vote by which the senate or the house of representatives fails to 195 approve the bill submitted under subdivision (1) of this subsection. If it is necessary to 196 submit a bill under this subdivision, the general assembly shall convene a special session 197 as provided in section 20(b) of this article of the Constitution of Missouri solely for the 198 purpose of bringing to a vote the bill embodying the second plan submitted under this 199 subdivision. The bill shall be brought to a vote not less than seven days after the bill is 200 submitted and made available to the members of the general assembly, under a procedure
201 or rule permitting no amendments except those of a purely corrective nature. If the bill 202 is approved by the first chamber in which it is considered, it shall expeditiously be brought 203 to a vote in the second chamber under a similar procedure or rule. If the bill embodying 204 the plan submitted by the redistricting division under this subdivision fails to be approved 205 by a constitutional majority in either the senate or the house of representatives, the 206 secretary of the senate or the chief clerk of the house, as the case may be, shall transmit to 207 the redistricting division in the same manner as described in subdivision (1) of this 208 subsection, information that the senate or house may direct by resolution regarding 209 reasons the plan was not approved.

210 (3) If the bill embodying the plan submitted by the redistricting division under 211 subdivision (2) of this subsection fails to be enacted, the same procedure as prescribed by 212 subdivision (2) of this subsection shall be followed. If a third plan is required under this 213 subdivision, the bill embodying it shall be delivered to the secretary of the senate and the 214 chief clerk of the house of representatives not later than thirty-five days after the date of 215 the vote by which the senate or the house of representatives fails to approve the bill 216 submitted under subdivision (2) of this subsection. The redistricting division shall submit 217 a bill under this subdivision sufficiently in advance of September first of the year ending

218 in one to permit the general assembly to consider the plan before that date. If it is 219 necessary to submit a bill under this subdivision, the general assembly shall convene a 220 special session as provided in section 20(b) of this article of the Constitution of Missouri 221 solely for the purpose of considering the bill embodying the third plan submitted under 222 this subdivision. The bill shall be brought to a vote within the same time period after its 223 delivery to the secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house of representatives as 224 is prescribed for the bill submitted under subdivision (2) of this subsection, but shall be 225 subject to amendment in the same manner as other bills under this article of the 226 Constitution of Missouri.

227       4. (1) (a) Senatorial and representative districts, respectively, shall each have a 228 population as nearly equal as practicable to the ideal population for such districts.
229 Senatorial districts and representative districts shall not vary in population from the 230 respective ideal populations for such districts except as necessary to comply with one of the 231 other standards enumerated in this subsection. In no case shall the quotient exceed one 232 percent of the applicable ideal population for such district. No senatorial district shall 233 have a population that exceeds that of any other senatorial district by more than five 234 percent, and no representative district shall have a population that exceeds that of any 235 other representative district by more than five percent.

236       (b) If a challenge is filed with the supreme court alleging excessive population 237 variance among districts established in a plan adopted by the general assembly, the general 238 assembly has the burden of justifying any variance in excess of one percent between the 239 population of a district and the applicable ideal district population.

240       (2) To the extent consistent with subdivision (1) of this subsection, district 241 boundaries shall coincide with the boundaries of political subdivisions of the state. The 242 number of counties and cities divided among more than one district shall be as small as 243 possible. If there is a choice between dividing local political subdivisions, the more 244 populous political subdivisions shall be divided before the less populous, but this provision 245 shall not apply to a legislative district boundary drawn along a county line that passes 246 through a city that lies in more than one county.

247       (3) Districts shall be composed of convenient contiguous territory. Areas that meet 248 only at the points of adjoining corners shall not be deemed contiguous.

249       (4) Districts shall be reasonably compact in form, to the extent consistent with the 250 standards established by subdivisions (1) to (3) of this subsection. In general, reasonably 251 compact districts are those that are square, rectangular, or hexagonal in shape, and not 252 irregularly shaped, to the extent permitted by natural or political boundaries. If it is 253 necessary to compare the relative compactness of two or more districts, or of two or more 254 alternative redistricting plans, the following tests shall be used:

255 (a) Length-width compactness. The compactness of a district is greatest if the 256 length of the district and the width of the district are equal. The measure of a district's 257 compactness is the absolute value of the difference between the length and the width of the 258 district. In general, the length-width compactness of a district is calculated by measuring 259 the distance from the northernmost point or portion of the boundary of a district to the 260 southernmost point or portion of the boundary of the same district and the distance from 261 the westernmost point or portion of the boundary of the district to the easternmost point 262 or portion of the boundary of the same district. The absolute values computed for 263 individual districts under this paragraph may be cumulated for all districts in a plan in 264 order to compare the overall compactness of two or more alternative redistricting plans for 265 the state, or for a portion of the state; or

266 (b) Perimeter compactness. The compactness of a district is greatest if the distance 267 needed to traverse the perimeter boundary of a district is as short as possible. The total 268 perimeter distance computed for individual districts under this paragraph may be 269 cumulated for all districts in a plan in order to compare the overall compactness of two or 270 more alternative redistricting plans for the state, or for a portion of the state.

271 (5) No district shall be drawn for the purpose of favoring any political party, any 272 incumbent legislator or member of Congress, or any other person or group, or for the 273 purpose of augmenting or diluting the voting strength of a language or racial minority 274 group. In establishing districts, no use shall be made of any of the following data:

275 (a) Addresses of incumbent legislators or members of Congress;

276 (b) Political affiliations of registered voters;

277 (c) Previous election results; or

278 (d) Demographic information, other than population head counts, except as 279 required by the Constitution and the laws of the United States.

280 (6) In order to minimize electoral confusion and to facilitate communication within 281 state legislative districts, each plan drawn under this subsection shall provide that each 282 representative district is wholly included within a single senatorial district and that, so far 283 as possible, each representative and each senatorial district shall be included within a 284 single congressional district. However, the standards established by subdivisions (1) to (5) 285 of this subsection shall take precedence if a conflict arises between these standards and the 286 requirement, so far as possible, of including a senatorial or representative district within 287 a single congressional district.

288           (7) Each bill embodying a plan drawn under this subsection shall provide that any 289 vacancy in the general assembly that takes office in the year ending in one, occurring at a 290 time that makes it necessary to fill the vacancy at a special election held as provided by law, 291 shall be filled from the same district that elected the senator or representative whose seat 292 is vacant.

293           (8) Each bill embodying a plan drawn under this subsection shall include 294 provisions for election of senators to the general assembly that take office in the years 295 ending in three and five, which shall be in conformity with subsection 1 of section 5 of this 296 article of the Constitution of Missouri. With respect to any plan drawn for consideration 297 in a year ending in one, those provisions shall be substantially as follows:

298           (a) Each senatorial district in the plan that is not a holdover senatorial district shall 299 elect a senator in the year ending in two for a four-year term commencing in January of 300 the year ending in three. If an incumbent senator who was elected to a four-year term that 301 commenced in January of the year ending in one, or was subsequently elected to fill a 302 vacancy in such a term, is residing in a senatorial district in the plan that is not a holdover 303 senatorial district on the first Wednesday in February of the year ending in two, that 304 senator's term of office shall be terminated on January first of the year ending in three;

305           (b) Each holdover senatorial district in the plan shall elect a senator in the year 306 ending in four for a four-year term commencing in January of the year ending in five;

307           (c) If one and only one incumbent state senator is residing in a holdover senatorial 308 district in the plan on the first Wednesday in February of the year ending in two, and that 309 senator meets all of the following requirements, the senator shall represent the district in 310 the senate for the general assembly commencing in January of the year ending in three:

311           (i) The senator was elected to a four-year term that commenced in January of the 312 year ending in one or was subsequently elected to fill a vacancy in such a term; and 313           (ii) The senatorial district in the plan that includes the place of residence of the 314 state senator on the date of the senator's last election to the senate is the same as the 315 holdover senatorial district in which the senator resides on the first Wednesday in 316 February of the year ending in two, or is contiguous to such holdover senatorial district.

317 Areas that meet only at the points of adjoining corners are not contiguous;

318           (d) Each holdover senatorial district to which paragraph (c) is not applicable shall 319 elect a senator in the year ending in two for a two-year term commencing in January of the 320 year ending in three. However, if more than one incumbent state senator is residing in a 321 holdover senatorial district on the first Wednesday in February of the year ending in two, 322 and, on or before the third Wednesday in February of the year ending in two, all but one 323 of the incumbent senators resign from office effective no later than January of the year

324 ending in three, the remaining incumbent senator shall represent the district in the senate 325 for the general assembly commencing in January of the year ending in three. A copy of 326 each resignation shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state no later than 5:00 p.m.
327 on the third Wednesday in February of the year ending in two; and 328 (e) The secretary of state shall prescribe a form to be completed by all senators to 329 declare their residences as of the first Wednesday in February of the year ending in two.

330 The form shall be filed with the secretary of state no later than 5:00 p.m. on the first 331 Wednesday in February of the year ending in two.

332 5. (1) Not later than February fifteenth of each year ending in one, a five-member 333 temporary redistricting advisory commission shall be established as provided by this 334 subsection. The commission's only functions shall be those prescribed in subdivision (3) 335 of this subsection.

336 (a) Each of the four selecting authorities shall certify to the secretary of state the 337 authority's appointment of a person to serve on the commission. The certifications may 338 be made at any time after the majority and minority floor leaders have been selected for 339 the general assembly that takes office in the year ending in one, even though the general 340 assembly's term of office has not actually begun;

341 (b) Within thirty days after the four selecting authorities have certified their 342 respective appointments to the commission, but in no event later than February fifteenth 343 of the year ending in one, the four commission members so appointed shall select, by a vote 344 of at least three members, and certify to the secretary of state the fifth commission member, 345 who shall serve as chair;

346 (c) A vacancy on the commission shall be filled by the initial selecting authority 347 within fifteen days after the vacancy occurs; and

348 (d) Each member of the commission shall receive as compensation fifteen dollars 349 a day for each day the commission is in session but not more than one thousand dollars, 350 and, in addition, shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred while 351 serving as a member of the commission.

352 (2) No person shall be appointed to the commission who:

353 (a) Is not an eligible elector of the state at the time of selection;

354 (b) Holds partisan public office or political party office; or 355 (c) Is a relative of or is employed by any member of the general assembly or of the 356 United States Congress, or is employed directly by the general assembly or by the United 357 States Congress.

358 (3) The functions of the commission shall be as follows:

359 (a) If, in preparation of plans as required by this section, the redistricting division 360 is confronted with the necessity to make any decision for which no clearly applicable 361 guideline is provided by subsection 4 of this section, the redistricting division may submit 362 a written request for direction to the commission;

363 (b) Before delivering any plan and the bill embodying that plan to the secretary of 364 the senate and the chief clerk of the house of representatives in accordance with subsection 365 3 of this section, the redistricting division shall provide to persons outside the redistricting 366 division only such information regarding the plan as may be required by policies agreed 367 upon by the commission. This subsection shall not apply to population data furnished to 368 the redistricting division by the United States Bureau of the Census; and 369 (c) Upon the delivery by the redistricting division to the general assembly of a bill 370 embodying an initial plan, as required by subdivision (1) of subsection 3 of this section, the 371 commission shall:

372 a. As expeditiously as reasonably possible, schedule and conduct at least three 373 public hearings, in different geographic regions of the state, on the plan embodied in the 374 bill delivered by the redistricting division to the general assembly; and 375 b. Following the hearings, promptly prepare and submit to the secretary of the 376 senate and the chief clerk of the house of representatives a report summarizing information 377 and testimony received by the commission in the course of the hearings. The commission's 378 report shall include any comments and conclusions that the members deem appropriate 379 on the information and testimony received at the hearings, or otherwise presented to the 380 commission. The report shall be submitted no later than fourteen days after the date the 381 bill embodying an initial plan of legislative redistricting is delivered to the general 382 assembly.

383 6. No reapportionment shall be subject to the referendum.

Section 30. 1. No bill shall become a law until it is signed by the presiding officer of 2 each house in open session, who first shall suspend all other business, declare that the bill shall 3 now be read and that if no objection be made he will sign the same.

4 2. If in either house any member shall object in writing to the signing of a bill, the 5 objection shall be noted in the journal and annexed to the bill to be considered by the governor 6 in connection therewith.

7 3. When a bill has been signed, the secretary, or the chief clerk, of the house in which 8 the bill originated shall present the bill in person to the governor on the same day on which it was 9 signed and enter the fact upon the journal.

10           4. Subsections 2 and 3 of this section shall not apply to any legislative redistricting

3 presentment, he shall return such bill to the house in which it originated endorsed with his 4 approval or accompanied by his objections. If the bill be approved by the governor it shall 5 become a law. When the general assembly adjourns, or recesses for a period of thirty days or 6 more, the governor shall return within forty-five days any bill to the office of the secretary of 7 state with his approval or reasons for disapproval. If any bill shall not be returned by the 8 governor within the time limits prescribed by this section it shall become law in like manner as 9 if the governor had signed it. This section shall not apply to any legislative redistricting bill 10 that has passed the house of representatives and the senate as provided in section 7 of this 11 article of the Constitution of Missouri.

          Section 35. 1. There shall be a permanent joint committee on legislative research, 2 selected by and from the members of each house as provided by law. The general assembly, by 3 a majority vote of the elected members, may discharge any or all of the members of the 4 committee at any time and select their successors. The committee may employ a staff as 5 provided by law. The committee shall meet when necessary to perform the duties, advisory to 6 the general assembly, assigned to it by law. The members of the committee shall receive no
