All property of every kind, including cash or other negotiable instruments, used or intended for use in the course of, derived from, or realized through criminal activity is subject to civil forfeiture. Civil forfeiture shall be had by a civil procedure known as a CAFA forfeiture proceeding.

2. A CAFA forfeiture proceeding shall be governed by the Missouri rules of court, rules of civil procedure, except to the extent that special rules of procedure are stated herein.

3. Any property seized by a law enforcement officer or agent shall not be disposed of pursuant to section 542.301 or by the uniform disposition of unclaimed property act, sections 447.500 through 447.595, unless the CAFA proceeding involving the seized property does not result in a judgment of forfeiture.

4. In cases where the property is abandoned or unclaimed, an in rem CAFA forfeiture proceeding may be instituted by petition by the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the property is located or seized by the attorney general's office. The proceeding may be commenced before or after seizure of the property.

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

18 6. (1) If the petition is filed before seizure, it shall state what property is sought to be 19 forfeited, that the property is within the jurisdiction of the court, the grounds for forfeiture, and 20 the names of all persons known to have or claim an interest in the property. The court shall 21 determine ex parte whether there is reasonable cause to believe that the property is subject to 22 forfeiture and that notice to those persons having or claiming an interest in the property prior to 23 seizure would cause the loss or destruction of the property. If the court finds that reasonable 24 cause does not exist to believe the property is subject to forfeiture, it shall dismiss the 25 proceeding. If the court finds that reasonable cause does exist to believe the property is subject 26 to forfeiture but there is not reasonable cause to believe that prior notice would result in loss or 27 destruction, it shall order service on all persons known to have or claim an interest in the 28 property prior to a further hearing on whether a writ of seizure should issue. If the court finds 29 that there is reasonable cause to believe that the property is subject to forfeiture and to believe

32 agency where the property is found to seize it.

36 believe the property is subject to forfeiture and will be lost or destroyed if not seized. Within 37 four days of the date of seizure, such seizure shall be reported by said officer to the prosecuting 38 attorney of the county in which the seizure is effected or the attorney general; and if in the 39 opinion of the prosecuting attorney or attorney general forfeiture is warranted, the prosecuting
40 attorney or attorney general shall, within ten days after receiving notice of seizure, file a petition
41 for forfeiture. The petition shall state, in addition to the information required in subdivision (1)
42 of this subsection, the date and place of seizure. The burden of proof will be on the investigative 43 agency to prove all allegations contained in the petition.

44 7. After the petition is filed or the seizure effected, whichever is later, every person 45 known to have or claim an interest in the property shall be served, if not previously served, with 46 a copy of the petition and a notice of seizure in the manner provided by the Missouri rules of 47 court and rules of civil procedure. Service by publication may be ordered upon any party whose
