

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-FIRST DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 15, 2018

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by the Most Reverend W. Shawn McKnight, Bishop of Jefferson City.

Every good tree bringeth forth good fruit. (Matthew 7:17)

We open our minds to You, O God, and pray that Your spirit may come into our hearts, giving us strength and guidance. Remove from within us any bitterness that influences our lives, any resentment that ruins our attitudes, and any worry that drains and wears us out.

Help us to think truthfully and clearly, to speak forcefully and faithfully, and to work heartily and hopefully, and to live trustfully and truly. In this spirit may we learn to do what is best for our State and good for the people we serve and love.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Reece Lawson, Libby Barber, and Brenden McDonald.

The Journal of the fortieth day was approved as printed.

- (3) The geographic area where the attorney services are to be provided; and
- (4) The amount of experience desired for the particular kind of attorney services to be provided and the nature of the private attorney's experience with similar issues or cases.

2. If the attorney general makes the determination described in subsection 1 of this section, the attorney general shall request written proposals from private attorneys to represent the state, unless the attorney general determines that requesting proposals is not feasible under the circumstances and sets forth the basis for this determination in writing. If a request for proposals is issued, the attorney general shall choose the lowest and best bid or request that the office of administration establish an independent panel to evaluate the proposals and choose the lowest and best bid.

3. The state shall not enter into a contract for contingency fee attorney services unless the following requirements are met throughout the contract period and any extensions to the contract:

Any payment of contingency fees shall be posted on the attorney general's website within fifteen days after the payment of such contingency fees to the private attorney and shall remain posted on the website for at least three hundred sixty-five days.

6. Any private attorney under contract to provide services to the state on a contingency fee basis shall, from the inception of the contract until at least four years after the contract expires or is terminated, maintain detailed current records, including documentation of all expenses, disbursements, charges, credits, underlying receipts and invoices, and other financial transactions that concern the provision of such attorney services. The private attorney shall maintain detailed contemporaneous time records for the attorneys and paralegals working on the matter in increments of no greater than one-tenth of an hour and shall promptly provide these records to the attorney general, upon request. Any request under chapter 610 for inspection and copying of such records shall be served upon and responded to by the attorney general's office.

- (3) Five percent of that portion of any amount recovered that is more than fifteen million dollars but less than or equal to twenty million dollars; and
- (4) Two percent of that portion of any amount recovered that is more than twenty million dollars.

8. The total fee payable to all retained private attorneys in any matter that is the subject of a contingency fee contract shall not exceed ten million dollars, exclusive of any costs and expenses provided by the contract and actually incurred by the retained private attorneys, regardless of the number of actions or proceedings or the number of retained private attorneys involved in the matter.

11. By February first of each year, the attorney general shall submit a report to the president pro tem of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives describing the use of contingency fee contracts with private attorneys in the preceding calendar year. At a minimum, the report shall:

CORRECTION TO THE HOUSE JOURNAL

AFFIDAVIT

I, State Representative DaRon McGee, District 36, hereby state and affirm that my vote was incorrectly recorded as “absent with leave” on the motion by which HB 1573 was read the third time and passed on page 1235 of the Journal of the House for the thirty-ninth day, Tuesday, March 13, 2018. Pursuant to House Rule 94, I ask that the Journal be corrected to note that I was in the chamber while the board was open, and I did, in fact, vote “Aye.”

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my hand to this affidavit on this 15th day of March, 2018.
