HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 6009

WHEREAS, due to the number of items contained in House appropriations bills numbered 2001 to 2013, it is necessary to place a limitation on the total time of floor debate on such appropriations bills:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-ninth General Assembly, adopt a temporary rule designating a six-hour limitation on the total time of floor debate allowed for the purpose of discussing House appropriations bills numbered 2001 to 2013 for perfection. Such time shall be divided equally between, and controlled by, the budget committee chair and the ranking minority member of the budget committee, or their respective designees. The budget committee chair shall have the right to have the final one minute of designated time. If time has been allocated and unused by either side after House appropriations bills numbered 2001 to 2013 have all been discussed and no member from that side is seeking recognition to further discuss any of the House appropriations bills numbered 2001 to 2013, the Speaker may declare additional time waived and recognize the members of the other side to complete the use of their time. Nothing in this rule shall entitle any member to speak longer than the House Rules otherwise allow.
