

HB 1675 -- SCHOOL BUS DRIVER CERTIFICATION

SPONSOR: Redmon

Currently, school bus drivers provide an annual statement from a medical examiner certifying that they can safely operate a school bus. This bill extends the time period to not longer than two years if a medical examiner approved by the Department of Transportation agrees to issue such certification instead of a one year certification statement. The department may promulgate rules to enforce the bill.