

HB 1675 -- SCHOOL BUS DRIVER CERTIFICATION (Redmon)

COMMITTEE OF ORIGIN: Standing Committee on Transportation

Currently, school bus drivers provide an annual statement from a medical examiner certifying that they can safely operate a school bus. This bill extends the time period to not longer than two years if a medical examiner approved by the Department of Transportation agrees to issue such certification instead of a one year certification statement. The department may promulgate rules to enforce the bill.