

HB 1960 -- PEACE OFFICER APPLICANTS

SPONSOR: Butler

This bill specifies that a peace officer applicant shall be required, during the application or interview process, to complete a psychological evaluation aimed at identifying an applicant's potential prejudices, including both overt and implicit biases, to determine whether he or she can effectively work in law enforcement.