

SCS SB 990 -- COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICTS

Currently, a school district may initiate an election for the voters of the district to decide whether to attach the district to a community college district. This bill permits a community college to initiate the election and pay its costs. The bill provides that the community college's board of trustees may call an election on a plan to attach the school district to the community college district and levy the community college district's tax levy.