

Journal of the House

ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the
STATE OF MISSOURI

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 9, 2019

The House was called to order at twelve o'clock noon by the Honorable John R. Ashcroft, Secretary of State.

Prayer by Pastor Kevin Short, Christ Community Church, Republic, Missouri.

Father, we humbly come before You today to acknowledge Your presence and Your influence upon these halls of power. May our hearts yearn for Your guidance and bow a knee to Your sovereignty. We ask for a liberal bestowal of grace and wisdom upon these men and women who guide our state. May their leadership be marked by magnanimous hearts and a bold vision. May You awaken us all to the privilege of service and accept the responsibilities afforded today as a stewardship from above. We remember the words of the prophet of old who said, "He has told you, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with our God."

Father, we thank You that Your word and creation make clear that we are all Your image-bearers regardless of race, religion, status, or political affiliation. May the men and women in this hall reflect this high value given to every human being and lead accordingly. May they be fearless and resolute in their commitment for justice, civility, and principle. May the downtrodden and the poor not be forgotten.

In those dark hours when our leaders feel alone and are at a crossroads, may Your light shine, may truth guide, and Your love prevail in their hearts. May You lift them up and encourage them when they feel taken advantage of and slighted. May they serve from overflowing hearts as they take a towel and basin to their constituents. In these times that are increasingly complicated and problems weighty, may they know that You are always available to strengthen. May a host of witnesses in generations past inspire them.

We ask for Your particular blessing upon Representative Elijah Haahr as House Speaker. May You give him keen insight, great courage, and sensitivity as he leads this honorable body. I ask all these things in the name of our risen Lord, Jesus Christ, Amen.

The Missouri State Highway Patrol Troop F Color Guard presented the Colors.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

"The Star-Spangled Banner" was performed by Nadia Cole.

ADDRESS BY SECRETARY OF STATE JOHN R. ASHCROFT

Good Afternoon. Welcome to the opening of the 100th Regular Session of the Missouri General Assembly. It is an honor to open this historic session of the Missouri House of Representatives. May I thank each and every one of you specifically for your willingness to serve the people of Missouri. Every one of you chose to make the demanding commitment to run for public office, which often requires months of travel, separation from your families, working late nights and early mornings. But as you already know, the privilege of representing the people of Missouri far surpasses any challenges you encountered during your campaigns.

The Missouri Constitution creates a Republic separated into three distinct branches: the executive, the judiciary, and, arguably, the most important, the legislature. Some people assert that no other branch of government is as directly accountable to the people as the legislature. We can see this in the very laws of our state. Members of the legislature may only serve for 16 years, while only two executive branch offices even have term limits. Members of the House are elected to 2-year terms instead of the 4-year terms of the executive branch. Additionally, while vacant positions in the executive and the judicial branches may be filled by appointment, state law requires that all legislators be elected by the citizens of their respective districts, and for members of the House, these districts are intentionally kept small to ensure legislators are accountable to their constituents and know their constituents' will.

Because of this closeness, you have been given great authority to write our laws and determine how the people's money is spent. The Bible reminds us, in the Gospel of Luke, "To whom much has been given, much is required". So while I thank you for your service, let me join with you in pledging to the people of Missouri that we will lead with integrity, humility, and grace.

Integrity has been defined as the lifeblood of democracy and rightfully so. A government of, by, and for the people cannot long survive if the people do not trust their own elected officials. It is my hope that together we can be candid, transparent, and honest. Letting yes be yes and no be no. Not just making, but keeping promises. Treating those matters revealed to us in confidence as confidential.

President Ronald Reagan is frequently quoted as saying, "There is no limit to the amount of good you can do if you don't care who gets the credit." Far too often, jousting for acclaim stops progress. Let us humbly do what is right and best regardless of who will get the accolades. The accomplishment alone is worth the effort.

Let us show grace and be slow to assume bad faith. We are all imperfect with different strengths and weaknesses. Giving one another the benefit of the doubt is good for all of us. We all fail. All who seek and strive to do things of lasting consequence will fail at times.

And what greater thing of lasting import to strive for than to continually nurture an environment of opportunity for all Missourians. Let me encourage you to cultivate the American dream right here in Missouri and leave an even greater opportunity for success to the next generation.

With your commitment to enhancing educational opportunities, increasing government transparency, providing critical oversight of the executive and judicial branches, we can continue to make Missouri a land of opportunity and ensure a bright future for our state.

Finally, let us all be guided by the words of President Abraham Lincoln from his Second Inaugural Address, "With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in..."

Thank you and may God bless the GREAT people of the state of Missouri.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER ELIJAH HAAHR

Secretary of State Ashcroft, Judge Goodman, Representative Anderson, members of the Missouri House, honored guests, and fellow Missourians:

Welcome to the 100th General Assembly.

I have stood at this spot more than a few times and yet somehow today it feels completely different.

To my colleagues, I am honored you elected me to serve as your Speaker. There are no words that can sum up what I am feeling.

I would like to say a few words about the people, the process, and the policies we are here for. Let's start with the people.

I would not be standing here today without some very important people in my life, and I want to take a moment to introduce them to you. Maybe no one else in my life is as responsible for my interest in politics as the people sitting to the right of me, my parents, Roger and Kathy Haahr. When I was 12 years old, my parents started volunteering on a State Rep campaign. I marched in parades, knocked on doors, and stood at the polls. Our candidate lost. Not only did he lose, we lost to a man that would eventually stand on this dais as Speaker of the House. Two decades later, the experiences of that campaign are why I stand here today. Sitting next to them is my brother, Noah, and his wife, Meagan. My parents taught us that we should pursue our dreams no matter what people thought of us. They raised me, a lawyer and a politician, and my brother, a used car salesman. We obviously took that lesson to heart. Next to them are my sister, Hannah, and my niece, Montana. For anyone who is attending the legislative ball this evening, please do not believe anything Hannah tells you about me.

Some of you are also fortunate enough to know my wife, Amanda. Most of you rarely see her because she is watching our 4 children, while I have the honor of being here 4 days a week or campaigning for my House colleagues around the state. Amanda has put her legal career on hold so I can serve in office. Thanks to her support, none of this would be possible. With her are our two oldest children, Jackson and Reagan. Their twin sisters, Scarlett and Alexandra, are across the hall watching TV to make sure you could hear me.

Each one of you have friends and family here to support you like I have with me - parents and grandparents, siblings, and spouses. Without all of you, we wouldn't be here. We wouldn't have this opportunity. We wouldn't get to stand on this floor in this arena and debate the future of our state. Wherever they are, whether on the side, down in front, in the upper gallery, or at home listening, we say "thank you," and I ask that you join me in giving them a round of applause.

We meet here today at democracy's front porch, in this historic chamber to celebrate an historic occasion. This is the beginning of the 100th General Assembly. Two centuries ago, Missouri's first general assembly met in a different building, representing a small state of 66,000 citizens: people that went to church on Sunday, went to work on Monday, went to vote on Tuesday, and, in between, built the greatest state in the greatest nation on earth. Exactly 100 years ago this week, the 50th General Assembly convened the first full session in this very chamber as the permanent home of the House of Representatives.

Today, our state has grown to over 6 million people. If you love the quiet country life on a farm or near a forest, Missouri has land for you. If you love the arts and entertainment of a large metropolitan area, Missouri has a city for you. If you want a 4-year bachelor degree, Missouri has 13 world class public universities for you. And whether you believe in the designated hitter or not, we have a baseball team for you. What I am trying to say is that no matter where you live in this great state Missouri is Mahomes for you.

For me, the House is a special place. It's the People's House. The Missouri House of Representatives is unique. We have 163 members in our body and are the fourth largest legislature in the nation. Our citizens actually know us. They interact with us at the grocery store and at restaurants. They attend church with us. They know our names and our cell phone numbers. And they elect us to speak for them on this floor. This is why when we step onto this floor we lose our individual identity. I am no longer Representative Haahr but become "the Gentleman from Greene." My voice is the voice of the 36,000 residents of my district, of Quail Creek neighborhood and Wanda Gray Elementary, of Nathanael Greene Park and Chesterfield Village.

And this Chamber is a meeting place that unites us as a state. Yes, we have our differences. Our debates become intense. But, hopefully, we never let fear keep us from standing for those meaningful ideas that could change our history.

As we begin this session, we should remember the words of Medal of Freedom recipient Thomas J. Watson when he said, "On the issues that seem important to you, stand up and be counted at any cost." We will not fear spirited, intellectual debate; in fact, we will encourage it because a robust argument is a sign that our great Republic is working. But may we always be passionate about issues and not personal attacks. We are a family with a common cause--to make Missouri a better place.

With that in mind, Minority Leader Quade and my Democratic colleagues, I will always value the ideas that you bring to the table. We won't always agree on policies. But we always will agree on the goals of safer neighborhoods to raise a family in, ensuring a better education for our children, and building a stronger economy for Missourians.

In 1820, when the first general assembly met, Missouri was a state full of promise. I believe that this, right now, is our moment to capitalize on that promise. We have the lowest unemployment in decades. Employers, from Leggett & Platte to the La Plata Hardware Store, are growing. We have a geographic advantage in the middle of the country that no other state can claim. Whether on our highways, rivers, or on freight rail, the goods for the nation pass through our state and our communities. Whether you are here for Branson or Bass Pro, our tourism industry is booming. This does not mean we can rest.

This year we will create bold solutions for the challenges faced by every Missourian. At the heart of our efforts is economic growth. Our message that Missouri is open for business cannot be just lip service coming from this building. The policies we pass must focus on cultivating employers not controlling businesses. Last year we came together to provide historic tax relief for every Missouri family and businesses. By eliminating wasteful spending and setting priorities, we are steadfast in never spending more than we take in. For the last 15 years we have passed a balanced budget without asking Missourians for a tax increase, and that will not change on our watch. Gone are the old ways of thinking that public money alone could end our problems.

Two years ago, this legislature fully funded the school foundation formula. Last year we did it again. And we will continue to do so. But the way we spend educational dollars is as important as how much we spend. We need schools that challenge yet support our students. Our goal should always be this: to ensure that every child--and I mean EVERY child--in this state gets a world class education no matter their zip code. And we won't stop there. If we want a 21st century workforce, we need 21st century colleges.

Hope must also extend to the Missourians trapped in the hold of opioid addictions. The House will continue to lead the charge to confront the opioid epidemic raging across our state.

And while we are at it, we must provide opportunities to those in a broken criminal justice system. Last year, the House unanimously passed reforms to our sentencing laws and we will again lead on these reforms.

Most importantly, as legislators, we stand for every Missourian. We stand for the innocent, the infirm, the born and the unborn.

The issues before us are many, but the question of our time is narrow: Did we advance Missouri forward? Did we seize the moment to be bold or were we satisfied to play it safe?

Today, we gather, just like the Missouri leaders did 200 years ago, ready to serve. We have an opportunity; YOU have an opportunity that few are afforded in life: to improve Missouri in a bold way.

Our nation is a young one. Our state is even younger. And not only is it young, we are young. Today, I am the youngest Speaker in the nation. Sitting on this floor is Dirk Deaton, the youngest state legislator in over a hundred years. Representing us in Washington is the youngest Senator in the country, Josh Hawley. We are brimming with optimism and energy, ready to embrace innovative ideas for our state. The cynics scoffed and said we dreamed too big. Really, the cynics just thought too small. It is not our age that tells our story. It is our experiences.

Each of us today walked down our own road, with many different twists and turns, with our own vision of a better Missouri. The personal experiences we all bring to this chamber are what make a citizen legislature so valuable. I am the product of a stay-at-home mother. She home-schooled her three children while my father got his hands dirty every day as a carpenter and small business owner, building homes in Southwest Missouri.

The greatness of our state and our nation is that anyone, ANYONE can achieve something in their life no matter where they started. We didn't get here because we were handed it; we are here because we worked for it. Our birthright is not dictated by our birth place. Our achievement is not conditioned by our income. Americans can do anything they set their mind to. And Missourians will show them the way.

From growing families to the greatest generation, from entrepreneurs to empty nesters, we are the voice of Missourians pursuing the American dream. Let us join together, seize the opportunity, and be bold.

Thank you for the honor to serve as your voice and your Speaker.

NOMINATIONS FOR SPEAKER PRO TEM

Representative Francis nominated Representative John Wiemann as Speaker Pro Tem of the House.

Representative Pike seconded the nomination.

Representative Vescovo moved that nominations cease and Representative Wiemann be elected by acclamation.

Which motion was adopted.

The following committee was appointed to escort Representative Wiemann to the dais: Representatives Andrews, Shaul, Kelly (141), Schnelting, Walsh, Eslinger, Ruth, Griesheimer, Ellebracht, Washington, and Green.

Representative Wiemann subscribed to the oath of office, which was administered by the Honorable Daniel Pelikan, Judge of the 11th Judicial Circuit Court of Missouri.

Speaker Pro Tem Wiemann assumed the Chair.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER PRO TEM JOHN WIEMANN

Members of the House and guests, it is my honor to stand before you as the new Speaker Pro Tem for the 100th General Assembly of the State of Missouri. Thank you for believing in my ability to lead and serve the members of this wonderful institution as we all work to help make our state a better place to live and work for the people we serve.

Like all of us in this chamber, we have families that support us and make great sacrifices so we can serve the people of Missouri. I want to thank my wife, Yvette, and my sons Blake, and Clayton, for their love and support. I also want to thank my mother and father, who are here today, John and Susan Wiemann, for inspiring and encouraging me to become a public servant.

When I first was elected to the Missouri House, I noticed fourteen words inscribed above the columns of this chamber - words such as Honor, Liberty, and Truth. These words must have had significant meaning to Missouri's founders and I believe it is important we continue to reflect on them from time to time.

As your Speaker Pro Tem, I will strive every day to follow those virtues, promote those actions and codes of conduct to help maintain civility in this chamber and building. While each member will have their own personal and legislative goals, I believe we all should have a unified goal of fulfilling those virtues, actions and conducts inscribed on these walls in order to follow the Constitution of Missouri and the United States.

We have a new session and a new year to deliver new legislative achievements for the people we were elected to serve. As we begin, I want to leave you with some words of wisdom that were written more than a century ago that still hold true today.

"You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift. You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong. You cannot help the wage earner by pulling down the wage payer. You cannot further the brotherhood of man by encouraging class hatred. You cannot establish sound security on borrowed money. You cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than you earn. You cannot build character and courage by taking away man's initiative and independence. You cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves."

Thank you for your time, and God bless the state of Missouri and the United States America.

Speaker Haahr resumed the Chair.

Pursuant to Section 9.141, RSMo, the United States Bill of Rights was read by Marilyn Seaton, Office of the Assistant Chief Clerk.

A photograph was taken of the Joint Session to commemorate the 100th General Assembly and the 100th year of the Legislature in this capitol.

Benediction by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki.

In the beginning, when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless abyss, while a mighty wind swept over the waters. (Genesis 1:1)

Almighty and all seeing God, as we now begin to walk along the pathway of these days together in the People's House, may we display gratitude, humility, and charity to all who have elected us.

We thank You for the blessed assurance, namely, that in You we have adequate foundation for all our hopes, and we turn our faces joyfully to the high call of public service. As we give ourselves to You in the bonds of temperance, honesty, prudence and compromise, grant us strength.

Let us walk in Your footsteps, for this goal will bring no disappointment; the triumph of this endeavor will always bless us. O God, spare us from any blind selfishness which robs us of the satisfaction and joy of total public service, and fill us with those wonderful blessings and graces that ennoble and enrich life; thus we shall not live or serve Missouri in vain.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Joint Session was dissolved by Senator Rowden.

Speaker Haahr resumed the Chair.

If a bill is automatically referred to a Committee on Rules with a recommendation that it "Do Pass - Federal Mandate", the committee shall review the bill for the purpose of determining whether it should have federal mandate status. The committee may decide, by a majority of those present, whether to place the bill on the appropriate federal mandate calendar. If the committee declines to place the bill on the appropriate federal mandate calendar, it may consider whether to report the bill to the House with a "Do Pass" recommendation without federal mandate status. The authority of the committee with respect to limiting debate shall apply to bills reported by it as "Do Pass - Federal Mandate".

c. If a Committee on Rules shall place a limitation on the time of floor debate on a bill or on amendments, such time shall be divided equally between and controlled by the floor handler of the bill and the floor leader of the political party other than that of the floor handler or their respective designees. The floor handler shall have the right to have the final one minute of designated time. Nothing in this rule shall entitle any member to speak longer than the House Rules otherwise allow.

d. In reviewing bills automatically referred to it from another committee, a Committee on Rules may, but is not required to, take such testimony as it deems appropriate to make its decisions. The committee shall not amend any bill that was not initially referred to a Committee on Rules.

e. If a committee has reported a bill "Do Pass" with committee amendments, a Committee on Rules shall take such action as it deems proper on the entire package of the bill with committee amendments as though the committee amendments were already incorporated into the bill.

f. If a Committee on Rules is the original committee to which a bill is referred, when the committee reports such bill as "Do Pass" or "Without Recommendation", such bill shall not be subject to the automatic referral referenced in Rule 24~~(25)~~(26)(d)a. above. ~~[However,]~~ Instead, in reporting such bill, the committee may take any action on such bill ~~[as though the bill were referred to it after a "Do Pass" or "Without Recommendation" report from another committee]~~ that is permissible under the authority given to regular standing committees under Rule 24(1) above.

- (a) Is of a controversial nature;
- (b) Makes a substantial policy change;
- (c) Increases net expenditures of the state;
- (d) Reduces net revenue of the state; or
- (e) Creates or expands a penalty provision.

If it has been determined by the regular standing committee that such bill is of a noncontroversial nature and meets all consent requirements, the regular standing committee shall report the bill to the Committee on Consent and House Procedure as "Do Pass - Consent". The Committee on Consent and House Procedure may decide by a majority affirmative vote of those present whether to place the bill on the appropriate consent calendar.

(2) Procedure on House Bills. If the regular standing committee shall so determine, the appropriate committee report shall include a request that a bill be placed on the House Consent Calendar for Perfection. Any bill so reported shall automatically be referred to the Committee on Consent and House Procedure. A Senate Bill may be considered by the committee for consent even if it was not a consent bill in the Senate.

(4) Procedure on Senate Bills. Senate Bills passed out of the appropriate House regular standing committee and the Committee on Consent and House Procedure with the request that the bill be placed on the Senate Bills for Third Reading and Final Passage - Consent Calendar are subject to the five member objection provision of this rule.

(5) Deadline for Placing Senate Consent Bills on the Calendar. No Senate consent bills shall be placed on the consent calendar after April 15.

(6) Amendments. House bills may be considered for consent after they are amended in committee but may not be amended on the floor of the House.

Senate consent bills may be amended in committee but not on the floor of the House unless the Senate Rules allow amendment of House consent bills on the floor of the Senate, in which case Senate consent bills may be amended on the floor of the House. House committee amendments to Senate consent bills shall be deemed adopted on the fifth legislative day.

AMENDMENTS AND SUBSTITUTES

Rule 49. (1) In Writing and Distributed in Advance.

(a) Proposed amendments shall be reduced to writing.

(b) Every amendment shall be distributed in advance of the time the bill is initially taken up for consideration. An amendment shall be considered to have been distributed if it has been either transmitted electronically and made available on each member's chamber laptop computer and a copy in paper form placed on the desk of the Majority Floor Leader and Minority Floor Leader or placed on the members' desks in paper form, except for the desk of any member who has waived receipt of amendments.

(c) The sponsor of an amendment that has been distributed may make technical corrections at the time the amendment is offered or under consideration. Any technical corrections shall be read in full by the clerk. Technical corrections shall be subject to a point of order that they are not truly technical in nature.

(d) The sponsor of an amendment shall not otherwise amend his or her own amendment.

(e) Every proposed amendment to the amendment and substitute amendment may be offered after the time a bill is initially taken up for consideration but shall be distributed prior to the offeror being recognized for a motion on such amendment.

(f) Amendments shall be prepared by House Research or House Appropriations and filed with the Chief Clerk.

(2) What Amendments and Substitute Amendments are in Order. When a bill, motion, or proposition is under consideration, a motion to amend and a motion to amend that amendment shall be in order, and it also shall be in order to offer a further amendment by way of substitute for the original motion to amend, to which one amendment may be offered. It shall not be in order to offer a substitute amendment to an amendment to an amendment. When an amendment is offered, a substitute for that amendment is offered, and an amendment to the substitute is offered, it shall not be in order to offer a substitute for the amendment to the substitute. Any proposed amendment in the third degree shall be out of order. Any motion to adopt an amendment may be withdrawn by the sponsor before decision thereon. Once a bill has been amended, it shall be in the possession of the House. If a proposed amendment has been defeated, the same amendment shall not be proposed again. An amendment identical to one previously decided on the same bill is not in order, except for amendments to appropriations bills.

(3) Committee Substitutes Treated as Original. A House Committee Substitute shall be considered as an original bill for purposes of amendment.

(4) House Substitute. No House Substitute will be in order. A House Substitute is an amendment which, in the opinion of the Speaker, is effectually replacing the underlying bill or committee substitute.

(6) Appropriations Bills.

(a) No amendment to the appropriations bills of the state budget shall be in order if it increases the total amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the House appropriations bills. Any amendment that increases the amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the House appropriations bills shall be required to be submitted with a separate amendment that makes an equal reduction in general revenue or general revenue equivalent in the same bill or any other of the bills still pending. If the reduction is in another bill, the decreasing amendment shall be taken up first, and the increasing amendment may be taken up only if the decreasing amendment is adopted. When a pair of amendments is submitted, the decreasing amendment shall be required to clearly identify the corresponding increasing amendment.

(b) If a member's decreasing amendment is adopted and the same member's increasing amendment is defeated, the decreasing amendment's adoption is void.

(c) The offering and adoption of an amendment decreasing the amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated without a balancing increase creates no right of another member to offer an increasing amendment in any amount up to the amount of the decrease effected by the decreasing amendment, and no member may be recognized for the purpose of making such an amendment.

(d) For the perfection of the House appropriations bills of the state budget only, it shall be permissible to amend any line item as often as the House pleases, as long as prior adopted amendments to the line item are taken into account.

(e) Notwithstanding any rule to the contrary, neither substitute amendments nor amendments to amendments shall be in order for any appropriations bill other than technical corrections under Rule 49(1).

Committee Substitute Printed

Rule 50. When a committee recommends a substitute for a bill, the original bill will accompany the substitute. The substitute shall be handled on the floor of the House by the committee chair or any member designated by the committee chair. The Chief Clerk shall have an appropriate number of copies of the substitute printed. No committee substitute shall be called from the calendar of the House until the printed copies have been distributed for at least one legislative day. Amendments, if any, may be offered to the substitute before the vote on the motion to adopt the substitute is taken. If the substitute is defeated, the original bill shall be before the House for perfection and shall be considered and shall be handled on the floor by the original sponsor of the bill.

Order of Amendments

Rule 51. When amendments to any bill, motion, or proposition are pending, they shall be voted on in the following order:

(1) Amendments to the amendment are disposed of before the substitute is taken up. Only one amendment to the amendment is in order at one time; but as rapidly as one is disposed of by rejection or incorporation as a part of the amendment, another is in order as long as any member desires to offer one.

(2) Amendments to the substitute are next voted on, and may be offered, one at a time, and as rapidly as one is disposed of by rejection or incorporation as a part of the substitute amendment, another is in order as long as any member desires to offer one, until the substitute amendment is adopted.

(3) The substitute amendment, as amended, is next voted on. If the substitute amendment is adopted, the underlying amendment to which it was offered shall not be voted upon, but the substitute amendment shall become part of the bill.

(4) The amendment is voted on last. If any substitute has not been agreed to, the vote comes on the amendment as amended.

(5) The House Committee Substitute is next voted upon, after opportunity for amendment. If the House Committee Substitute is adopted, there shall be an additional vote for the perfection of the bill, as amended.

(6) If there is no House Committee Substitute, or if the House Committee Substitute is not adopted, the original House Bill is next voted upon, after opportunity for amendment.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27, authorizes the Governor to control the rate at which any appropriation is expended by allotment and, further, authorizes the Governor to reduce the expenditures of the state or any of its agencies below their appropriations whenever the actual revenues are less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based; and

WHEREAS, in addition to the power to control the rate of expenditure established in Article IV, Section 27, three percent of each appropriation, with the exception of amounts for personal service to pay salaries fixed by law, shall be set aside pursuant to section 33.290, RSMo, as a reserve fund and not subject to expenditure except with the approval of the Governor; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.2, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly “whenever the rate at which any appropriation shall be expended is not equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation”; and

WHEREAS, due to a variety of factors, including the three percent reserve that is legally required by section 33.290, RSMo, the rate at which most appropriations are expended is not in “equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation”; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.3, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly “when the governor reduces one or more items or portions of items of appropriation of money as a result of actual revenues being less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based.”

NOW THEREFORE, I, Michael L. Parson, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27, do hereby make the following notification to the Ninety-Ninth General Assembly of the State of Missouri:

I hereby notify the General Assembly, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27.2 of the Missouri Constitution, that through the first quarter of fiscal year 2019, the rate of expenditure for each of the appropriation lines in the fiscal year 2019 budget attached as Exhibit A is not in equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation.

I further notify the General Assembly, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27.3 of the Missouri Constitution, that I have taken no action to permanently reduce one or more items or portions of items of appropriation of money as a result of actual revenues being less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based in the fiscal year 2019 budget.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Missouri, in the City of Jefferson, this 31st day of October 2018.
