

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

EIGHTEENTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 2019

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Doug Richey.

Most Holy God, You have revealed Yourself as the all powerful Creator, wonderful Counselor, gracious Redeemer, righteous Judge, King of kings, Lord of lords, and Friend to the powerless. We stand humbly before You, as imperfect people charged with a task of great consequence. We ought readily admit our limitations. We ought readily admit our struggles. We ought readily admit our temptations. We ought readily admit our needs. In this time of humble admission, we ask for Your kind provision of all that is required for the completion of our task.

Our task is complicated by the circumstances of our time. We are all aware of the growing mental health crisis, pervasive substance abuse, sickening accounts of sexual objectification of women and children. We know the reality of pain and loss within our communities. To these burdens are added the routine challenges of infrastructure, education, workforce readiness, and public safety. We acknowledge that the responsibility of governance is ours, regarding these and many other issues. Yet, this path of governance is precarious. Experiencing the weight of this responsibility, we plead for Your help in our decisions and actions. Our task is complicated, but with Your aid it is not impossible.

We have not asked for these times, but You have set us within them. By Your grace and direction, may we meet our time with reason, wisdom, and courage. Help us to pass these times to future generations without obligating them to clean up the messes that were ours to clean. In order for this to occur, we ask that You guide us as we think deeply in search of that which is true and right, debate vigorously for just and appropriate laws, and strive passionately for the preservation of freedoms You have prescribed.

In all our labor, we ask that You keep us, those standing here before You, mindful that we bear the responsibility of governance as diverse members of the one human race, of the one State of Missouri, and of the one Missouri House of Representatives. May we strive to honor You and serve “the people.” Help us to stand as examples that inspire people to greater respect and service to others, and greater devotion to those principles undergirding our freedom and liberty.

I pray that these words, here uttered, are not empty words of rhetoric, but rather words that capture the true desire of this body before me.

In light of my conscience before You, I ask all of this in the name of Christ Jesus. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the seventeenth day was approved as printed.
