

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-THIRD DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 2019

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Doug Richey.

Oh God, today we stand before You, the author of life and the grantor of wisdom. Your word assures us that as we meet each new day, we shall also meet, by faith, the blessing of Your mercy.

Today, in this chamber, deliberation will occur. We ask that this day's deliberation will be superintended by Your merciful provision of wisdom. Proverbs tells us much about wisdom and foolishness, all of which should be heeded.

We know that fools take no joy in understanding; they take no joy in doing what is just; they take no joy in reserving judgement until a matter is heard fully; they take no joy in discretion; they take no joy in righteousness; they take no joy in acknowledging their errors. We ask that we may be found free of such foolishness. Instead, may You find us to be men and women of wisdom as we humbly seek truth, sound judgement, and the application of that which is right. In all of this, may we be quick to confess our arrogance and our trespasses when we find ourselves guilty of such offenses. We are confident that if we are faithful in the aforementioned, Missouri will be well served.

In light of my conscience before You, I ask all this in the name of Christ Jesus. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Brianna Smith.

The Journal of the thirty-second day was approved as printed by the following vote:

REPORT

March 5, 2019

The Honorable Elijah Haahr
Speaker of the Missouri House of Representatives
201 W. Capitol Ave., Rm. 308
Jefferson City, MO 65101

Dear Mr. Speaker,

On February 20, 2019, your Committee on Internet Taxation held a hearing to receive public opinion on whether and how to impose an internet sales / use / transaction tax. The committee begs leave to report it has examined the issue and hereby submits its findings.

The hearing opened with Chair Eggleston outlining facts about the Supreme Court's Quill Decision and Wayfair Decision, the approximate 1400 local taxing jurisdictions that Missouri has, and the challenges lawmakers face to set up an internet tax given the current statutory and constitutional earmarks in place for sales tax spending.

Representative Justus discussed the approach of internet sales tax collection and remittance be based on where the purchased items are shipped from, rather than where they are shipped to.

Witnesses that testified were Director Joel Walters and Mark Siettman from the Department of Revenue; lobbyist Richard Sheets from Missouri Municipal League; Steven Conway representing the St. Louis mayor's office; and Betsy Peters representing the Columbia City Council.

Walters and Siettman confirmed the Chair's opening statements, and listed nine bills that have been filed in the House and Senate relating to internet taxation. Walters and Siettman also discussed details about the Streamline Sales & Use Tax Agreement (SSUTA).

Mr. Sheets testified in favor of adopting an internet use tax. Mr. Conway and Ms. Peters also testified in favor of adopting an internet use tax, and stated that by implementing a use tax instead of a sales tax, their city would benefit by not sharing the revenues with the various TDDs, CIDs, and other taxing districts. None of the three witnesses offered a method to offset the tax increase with a separate tax decrease elsewhere to achieve revenue neutrality for the citizens or their government entities.

A copy of this report has been submitted to the Committee on Ways & Means.

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/ J. Eggleston
Chair, House District 02
