

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-EIGHTH DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 8, 2019

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Alan Green.

Most Loving God,

We are humbled to be able to see another day. Today we are reminded You never put more on us than we can bear, and You always make a way for us. Can each one of us sit still just for a moment, unmoving, simply reflecting, for just a few minutes? We are bogged down with distractions nowadays, emails, text messages, social media, kids, policy, bills, and life, constantly trying to follow whatever new trend can twist our attention for a moment. But, there is great strength in allowing yourself to sit still.

I dreamt I peered into a mirror, and I saw a train, God was where I should have been, He gently reassured me, “You won’t return again.”

“Keep looking in the mirror and I will make it clearer, about the many times and places and the dreams that you have lived.”

I watched with great amazement, I saw all that I’ve been through, the mirror was revealing, the countless “me’s for my review.

Each reflection seemed familiar, as though we were meeting once again. It was as if I was rediscovering, all my long lost loving family, and friends.

At birth, we boarded the train of life and met our parents, and we believed that they would always travel by our side. However, at some station, our parents would step down from the train, leaving us on life’s journey alone.

As time goes by, some significant people will board the train: siblings, other children, friends, and even the love of our life.

Many will step down, and leave a permanent vacuum. Others will go so unnoticed that we won’t realize that they vacated their seats! This train ride has been a mixture of job, sorrow, fantasy, expectations, hellos, goodbyes, and farewells.

A successful journey consists of having a good relationship with all passengers, requiring that we give a good relationship with all passengers, requiring that we give the best of ourselves. The mystery that prevails is that we do not know at which station we ourselves will step down. Thus, we must try to travel along the track of life in the best possible way, loving, forgiving, giving, and sharing.

When the time comes for us to step down and leave our seat empty—we should leave behind beautiful memories for those who continue to travel on the train of life.

Let's remember to thank our Creator for giving us life to participate in this journey.

I close by thanking you for taking a moment to ride my train.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Rylan Toeberman and Carleigh Toeberman.

The Journal of the forty-seventh day was approved as printed by the following vote:
