

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

---

FIFTY-NINTH DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 29, 2019

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Wiemann in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Dan Stacy.

Dear Lord, Almighty God of creation:

Help us today to speak to each other in ways that honor You. Help us to treat each other with the respect and dignity that being created in Your image deserves. Help us to serve the citizens of Missouri with selfless devotion.

Help us to guard against the self-seeking corruptive influence of unbridled power. Help us seek Your wisdom and guidance in knowing when aspects of our human nature lead us toward harmful paths. And forgive us when we fail You at any of these requests.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Jordan Rivera.

The Journal of the fifty-eighth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
100TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
STATE OF MISSOURI

IN THE MATTER OF REPRESENTATIVE DARON MCGEE
HOUSE ETHICS COMPLAINT NO. 19-001

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

WHEREON, the Committee on Ethics of the Missouri House of Representatives pursuant to Rule 5 of House Committee Substitute for House Resolution 137, reports as follows:

1. On January 7, 2019, a mandated reporter contacted the Missouri House of Representatives Division of Administration to report allegations that a member, Representative DaRon McGee (Respondent), attempted to engage in an amorous relationship with a House employee (Employee) whom he supervised. Pursuant to the House policies prohibiting sexual harassment and prohibiting a member from engaging in an amorous relationship with an employee, the House engaged outside counsel to investigate the report.

2. The Employee, the Respondent, and other witnesses were interviewed as part of counsel's investigation. Outside counsel submitted a report to the Chief Clerk on January 21, 2019. Pursuant to rules and House policy, the report was considered a complaint and was forwarded to the Committee on Ethics.

3. On February 2, 2019, after reviewing the report from outside counsel, the Committee voted (9-1) to proceed to a preliminary hearing.

4. The Committee requested the Speaker issue a subpoena for electronic communications between the Respondent and the Employee. In response to the subpoena, the Committee received a series of text messages between the Respondent and the Employee sent and received in 2017-2018. Several of the text messages instigated by the Respondent were flirtatious in nature, and gave the appearance of the Respondent attempting to establish an amorous relationship with the Employee.

5. The Committee met several times in March and April, 2019, to review the evidence and take sworn testimony from the Employee, the Respondent, and other witnesses. Both the Employee and the Respondent, and their respective counsel, were provided a copy of the investigative report and were given the opportunity to make a statement to the committee. Respondent's testimony before the Committee was rescheduled at the request of Respondent. Respondent finally appeared to testify before the Committee pursuant to a subpoena issued by the Speaker.

6. The Committee finds, based upon the evidence received by the Committee, that:

- a) The Respondent made repeated communications to the Employee over the course of at least ten months that were attempts to engage in an amorous relationship;
- b) There is no evidence that the Respondent and the Employee actually engaged in an amorous relationship;
- c) The attempts were not welcomed by the Employee; and
- d) Respondent thereafter took actions which resulted in the termination of the employment of the Employee.

7. The Committee finds that Respondent's actions involving the Employee were unbecoming of a representative, and that the actions constitute ethical misconduct of sufficient severity to warrant censure.

8. The Committee on April 24, 2019, voted (8-0) to resolve this matter by recommending that the House of Representatives censure Respondent for his actions involving the Employee, with the following additional sanctions:

- a) That Representative McGee conduct himself in a manner that respects the commitment of the House to provide a work environment free of sexual discrimination to all members and employees;
- b) The Speaker reassign any House employee who is currently directly supervised by Representative McGee to the direct supervision of the Chief Clerk, who should monitor the representative's contact with other House employees as appropriate;
- c) The Speaker and Minority Floor Leader remove Representative McGee from any committee assignments that he presently holds;
- d) The Speaker and Minority Floor Leader withhold from Representative McGee any of the privileges of office that the Speaker or Minority Floor Leader deem appropriate;
- e) That Representative McGee pay restitution to the House of Representatives in the amount of $7,408.05, representing the costs of the investigation of this matter;
- f) That Representative McGee resign from the position of Assistant Minority Floor Leader; and
- g) That Representative McGee resign, or, upon failure to do so, be subject to potential expulsion at this or a future session of the One Hundredth General Assembly if he fails to comply with these recommended sanctions or if a complaint of similar conduct is filed with the Committee on Ethics.

9. At the Committee hearing on April 24, 2019, Respondent was given until noon on Monday, April 29, 2019, to accept or reject the recommended sanction of censure under paragraph C of Rule 8. Respondent failed to meet this deadline.

10. The Committee finds that Respondent has repeatedly delayed and obstructed these proceedings and impeded the resolution of this matter. Respondent's actions demonstrate disrespect to the House of Representatives and a failure to acknowledge the severity of his actions towards the Employee.

NOW THEREFORE, the Committee on Ethics, having given full consideration to this complaint, including hearing the evidence and testimony presented at the preliminary hearing, and in light of the Respondent's repeated attempts to delay the proceedings and obstruct the authority of this Committee, concludes that the actions of the Respondent constitute a moral and legal wrong and hereby issues this report, containing an enumerated list of recommended sanctions, as a final resolution of this matter.

The Committee on Ethics adopted this report by a vote of 10 to 0:

Ayes: Eggleston, Kendrick, Anderson, Andrews, Ellebracht, Fitzwater, Lynch, Brown (27), McCreery, Sauls
