

HB 1086 -- SHOOTING A VICTIM WHILE SURRENDERING

SPONSOR: Ellington

This bill specifies that a law enforcement officer commits the offense of shooting a victim while surrendering if the officer shoots a victim while the victim has his or her hands raised in surrender. The offense of shooting a victim while surrendering is a class A felony if the victim dies as a result of the shooting.