

HJR 4 -- REGULATIONS FOR CERTAIN BALLOT MEASURES

SPONSOR: Stacy

Upon voter approval, this proposed Constitutional amendment would allow, but not require, the regulation of campaign committees and other ballot measure proponent groups or individuals in a manner similar to existing regulation for candidate committees. Campaign finance limits, disclosure requirements, and reasonable election cost and fee requirements involving the verification of ballot signatures could be enacted by general law and be deemed consistent with the state constitutional right to the initiative petition process.