30 convict, pursuant to her sentence; or he may, at his discretion, commute her
31 punishment to imprisonment in the penitentiary for life.]

32
33 [565.030. 1. Where murder in the first degree is charged but not submitted or where 34 the state waives the death penalty, the submission to the trier and all subsequent 35 proceedings in the case shall proceed as in all other criminal cases.

36 2. Where murder in the first degree is submitted to the trier without a waiver of the 37 death penalty, the trial shall proceed in two stages before the same trier. At the first 38 stage the trier shall decide only whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty of any 39 submitted offense. The issue of punishment shall not be submitted to the trier at the 40 first stage. If an offense is charged other than murder in the first degree in a count
41 together with a count of murder in the first degree, the trial judge shall assess
42 punishment on any such offense according to law, after the defendant is found guilty
43 of such offense and after he finds the defendant to be a prior offender pursuant to 44 chapter 558.

45 3. If murder in the first degree is submitted and the death penalty was not waived but
46 the trier finds the defendant guilty of a lesser homicide, a second stage of the trial
47 shall proceed as in all other criminal cases. The attorneys may then argue as in other
48 criminal cases the issue of punishment, after which the trier shall assess and declare
49 the punishment as in all other criminal cases.

4. If the trier at the first stage of a trial where the death penalty was not waived finds the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree, a second stage of the trial shall proceed at which the only issue shall be the punishment to be assessed and declared. Evidence in aggravation and mitigation of punishment, including but not limited to evidence supporting any of the aggravating or mitigating circumstances listed in subsection 2 or 3 of section 565.032, may be presented subject to the rules of evidence at criminal trials. Such evidence may include, within the discretion of the court, evidence concerning the murder victim and the impact of the offense upon the family of the victim and others. Rebuttal and surrebuttal evidence may be presented. The state shall be the first to proceed. If the trier is a jury it shall be instructed on the law. The attorneys may then argue the issue of punishment to the jury, and the state shall have the right to open and close the argument. The trier shall assess and declare the punishment at life imprisonment without eligibility for probation, parole, or release except by act of the governor:

- (1) If the trier finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant is intellectually disabled; or
- (2) If the trier does not find beyond a reasonable doubt at least one of the statutory aggravating circumstances set out in subsection 2 of section 565.032; or
- (3) If the trier concludes that there is evidence in mitigation of punishment, including but not limited to evidence supporting the statutory mitigating circumstances listed in subsection 3 of section 565.032, which is sufficient to outweigh the evidence in aggravation of punishment found by the trier; or
- (4) If the trier decides under all of the circumstances not to assess and declare the punishment at death. If the trier is a jury it shall be so instructed.

If the trier assesses and declares the punishment at death it shall, in its findings or verdict, set out in writing the aggravating circumstance or circumstances listed in subsection 2 of section 565.032 which it found beyond a reasonable doubt. If the trier is a jury it shall be instructed before the case is submitted that if it is unable to decide or agree upon the punishment the court shall assess and declare the punishment at life imprisonment without eligibility for probation, parole, or release except by act of the governor or death. The court shall follow the same procedure as set out in this section whenever it is required to determine punishment for murder in the first degree.

5. Upon written agreement of the parties and with leave of the court, the issue of the defendant's intellectual disability may be taken up by the court and decided prior to trial without prejudicing the defendant's right to have the issue submitted to the trier of fact as provided in subsection 4 of this section.

6. As used in this section, the terms "intellectual disability" or "intellectually disabled" refer to a condition involving substantial limitations in general functioning characterized by significantly subaverage intellectual functioning with continual extensive related deficits and limitations in two or more adaptive behaviors such as communication, self-care, home living, social skills, community use, self-direction, health and safety, functional academics, leisure and work, which conditions are manifested and documented before eighteen years of age.

7. The provisions of this section shall only govern offenses committed on or after August 28, 2001.]

[565.032. 1. In all cases of murder in the first degree for which the death penalty is

1 authorized, the judge in a jury-waived trial shall consider, or shall include in his or
2 her instructions to the jury for it to consider:

3 ~~(1) Whether a statutory aggravating circumstance or circumstances enumerated in~~
4 ~~subsection 2 of this section is established by the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt;~~
5 ~~and~~

6 ~~(2) If a statutory aggravating circumstance or circumstances is proven beyond a~~
7 ~~reasonable doubt, whether the evidence as a whole justifies a sentence of death or a~~
8 ~~sentence of life imprisonment without eligibility for probation, parole, or release~~
9 ~~except by act of the governor.~~

10
11 In determining the issues enumerated in subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection,
12 the trier shall consider all evidence which it finds to be in aggravation or mitigation
13 of punishment, including evidence received during the first stage of the trial and
14 evidence supporting any of the statutory aggravating or mitigating circumstances set
15 out in subsections 2 and 3 of this section. If the trier is a jury, it shall not be 16 instructed upon any specific evidence which may be in aggravation or mitigation of 17 punishment, but shall be instructed that each juror shall consider any evidence which 18 he or she considers to be aggravating or mitigating.

29 ~~(4) The offender committed the offense of murder in the first degree for himself or~~
30 ~~herself or another, for the purpose of receiving money or any other thing of monetary~~

33 ~~judicial officer, prosecuting attorney or former prosecuting attorney, circuit attorney~~

39 ~~committed murder in the first degree as an agent or employee of another person;~~
