

House Concurrent Resolution No. 74

100TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY REPRESENTATIVE ROBERTS (77).

4818H.02I

DANA RADEMAN MILLER, Chief Clerk

1 WHEREAS, Missouri was part of the 1803 Louisiana Purchase and became a state in
2 1821; and

3

4 WHEREAS, the terms of Missouri's statehood included that Missouri would be the only
5 state north of the Mason-Dixon line that was a slave state; and

6

7 WHEREAS, the tensions in the nation regarding racial equality, or lack thereof, have 8 played out in profound ways in the state of Missouri; and

9

10 WHEREAS, St. Louis, being situated on the Mississippi River, was uniquely positioned 11 to be a destination for the slave trade; and

12

13 WHEREAS, tensions of human inequality are profoundly apparent in the history of the 14 state; and

15

16 WHEREAS, when persons with African ancestry in Missouri sued for their freedom, 17 such freedom was routinely granted; and

18

19 WHEREAS, the tension in the nation over the issue of slavery and human inequality
20 resulted in Dred and Harriet Scott, persons with African ancestry, being denied freedom in this
21 state in a decision by the Missouri Supreme Court on March 22, 1852, and such decision was 22 affirmed by the United States Supreme Court on March 6, 1857; and

23

24 WHEREAS, the March 22, 1852, Dred Scott decision is a negative legacy for this state
25 and antithetical to the nation's founding values, specifically the tenet that all men are created 26 equal; and

27

28 WHEREAS, the Dred Scott decision's assertion that people of African ancestry "had for 29 more than a century before been regarded as beings of an inferior order, and altogether unfit to 30 associate with the white race, either in social or political relations; and so far inferior, that they
31 had no rights which the white man was bound to respect; and that the negro might justly and 32 lawfully be reduced to slavery for his benefit" was an expression of racism and a precursor to Jim 33 Crow laws, which perpetrated over a century of injustice; and

34

35 WHEREAS, all political power is vested in and derived from the people; and

36

37 WHEREAS, all government of right originates from the people, is founded upon their 38 will only, and is instituted solely for the good of the whole; and

39

40 WHEREAS, all constitutional government is intended to promote the general welfare 41 of all people; and

42

43 WHEREAS, all persons have a natural right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;
44 and

45

46 WHEREAS, no person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property without the due 47 process of law; and

48

49 WHEREAS, all human beings are created equal and are entitled to equal rights and 50 opportunity under the law; and

51

52 WHEREAS, Missouri will never again deny legal protection to a class of human beings
53 on the grounds that they are less than human; and

54

55 WHEREAS, it is time to draw a line between Missouri's history, which encompassed
56 such inhumane and unfair treatment to our citizens, and the present and future Missouri, which 57 aims to be a place of equal treatment for all:

58

59 NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of 60 Representatives of the One Hundredth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate
61 concurring therein, hereby condemn the March 22, 1852, Dred Scott decision issued by the 62 Missouri Supreme Court.

63

64 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of 65 Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the 66 Governor, the Clerk of the Supreme Court of Missouri, the justices of the Supreme Court of 67 Missouri, and the members of the Missouri congressional delegation.
