AN ACT

To repeal section 311.055, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to intoxicating liquor.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 311.055, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 311.055, to read as follows:

311.055. 1. No person at least twenty-one years of age shall be required to obtain a license to manufacture intoxicating liquor, as defined in section 311.020, for personal or family use. The aggregate amount of intoxicating liquor manufactured per household shall not exceed two hundred gallons per calendar year if there are two or more persons over the age of twenty-one years in such household, or one hundred gallons per calendar year if there is only one person over the age of twenty-one years in such household. Any intoxicating liquor manufactured under this section shall not be sold or offered for sale.

2. Beer brewed under this section may be removed from the premises where brewed for personal or family use, including use at organized events, exhibitions, or competitions, such as home brewer contests, tastings, or judging. The use may occur off licensed retail premises, on any premises under a temporary retail license issued under section 311.218, 311.482, 311.485, 311.486, or 311.487, on any premises licensed for the sale and on-premises consumption of intoxicating liquor, or on any tax exempt organization's licensed premises as described in section 311.090. The provisions of this subsection shall apply notwithstanding the provisions of section 311.330 or any other provision of law to the contrary.

3. Any beer brewed under this section used at an organized event where an admission fee is paid for entry, at which the beer is available without a separate charge, shall not be deemed
