

HB 2473 -- COUNTY EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT

SPONSOR: Coleman (97)

The bill modifies the provision relating to any reporting errors made pertaining to determining benefit amounts under the County Employees' Retirement System. Any person failing to report to the system compensation earned in a given year and instead reporting such compensation to the system as earned in the next year, along with any compensation actually earned in the next year, in order to make the total compensation of such next year appear higher, thereby inflating an employees' average final compensation will be subject to a fine or imprisonment.
