15 more than one incident that alarms or causes distress to an adult or child and serves no legitimate 16 purpose. The course of conduct must be such as would cause a reasonable adult or child to suffer

18 petitioner or child. Such conduct might include, but is not limited to:

34 blood or marriage, persons who are presently residing together or have resided together in the 35 past, any person who is or has been in a continuing social relationship of a romantic or intimate

37 been married or have resided together at any time;

45 and not for commercial purposes;

46 (12) "Petitioner", a family or household member who has been a victim of domestic

56 conduct that causes alarm to another person, or a person who resides together in the same 57 household with the person seeking the order of protection when it is reasonable in that person's 58 situation to have been alarmed by the conduct. As used in this subdivision:

59 (a) "Alarm" means to cause fear of danger of physical harm; and 60 (b) "Course of conduct" means a pattern of conduct composed of two or more acts over 61 a period of time, however short, that serves no legitimate purpose. Such conduct may include, 62 but is not limited to, following the other person or unwanted communication or unwanted 63 contact.

 455.032. In addition to any other jurisdictional grounds provided by law, a court shall 2 have jurisdiction to enter an order of protection restraining or enjoining the respondent from 3 committing or threatening to commit domestic violence, stalking, sexual assault, molesting or 4 disturbing the peace of petitioner, or abusing a pet, pursuant to sections 455.010 to 455.085, 5 if the petitioner is present, whether permanently or on a temporary basis within the state of 6 Missouri and if the respondent's actions constituting domestic violence have occurred, have been 7 attempted or have been or are threatened within the state of Missouri. For purposes of this 8 section, if the petitioner has been the subject of domestic violence within or outside of the state 9 of Missouri, such evidence shall be admissible to demonstrate the need for protection in 10 Missouri.

 455.035. 1. Upon the filing of a verified petition pursuant to sections 455.010 to 2 455.085 and for good cause shown in the petition, the court may immediately issue an ex parte 3 order of protection. An immediate and present danger of domestic violence to the petitioner or 4 the child on whose behalf the petition is filed, or an immediate and present danger to a pet, 5 shall constitute good cause for purposes of this section. An ex parte order of protection entered 6 by the court shall take effect when entered and shall remain in effect until there is valid service 7 of process and a hearing is held on the motion. The court shall deny the ex parte order and 8 dismiss the petition if the petitioner is not authorized to seek relief pursuant to section 455.020.

 2. Failure to serve an ex parte order of protection on the respondent shall not affect the 10 validity or enforceability of such order. If the respondent is less than seventeen years of age, 11 unless otherwise emancipated, service of process shall be made upon a custodial parent or 12 guardian of the respondent, or upon a guardian ad litem appointed by the court, requiring that the 13 person appear and bring the respondent before the court at the time and place stated.

14 3. If an ex parte order is entered and the respondent is less than seventeen years of age, 15 the court shall transfer the case to juvenile court for a hearing on a full order of protection. The 16 court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for any such respondent not represented by a parent or 17 guardian.

455.040. 1. (1) Not later than fifteen days after the filing of a petition that meets the 2 requirements of section 455.020, a hearing shall be held unless the court deems, for good cause 3 shown, that a continuance should be granted. At the hearing, if the petitioner has proved the 4 allegation of domestic violence, stalking, or sexual assault by a preponderance of the evidence, 5 and the respondent cannot show that his or her actions alleged to constitute abuse were otherwise 6 justified under the law, the court shall issue a full order of protection for a period of time the 7 court deems appropriate, and unless after an evidentiary hearing the court makes specific 8 written findings that the respondent poses a serious danger to the physical or mental health 9 of the petitioner or of a minor household member of the petitioner, [except that] the 10 protective order shall be valid for at least one hundred eighty days and not more than one year.
11 If, after an evidentiary hearing, the court makes specific written findings that the 12 respondent poses a serious danger to the physical or mental health of the petitioner or of 13 a minor household member of the petitioner, the protective order shall be valid for at least 14 two years and not more than ten years.

15 (2) Upon motion by the petitioner, and after a hearing by the court, the full order of 16 protection may be renewed annually and for a period of time the court deems appropriate, and 17 unless the court at an evidentiary hearing made specific written findings that the 18 respondent poses a serious danger to the physical or mental health of the petitioner or of 19 a minor household member of the petitioner, [except that] the renewed protective order may 20 be renewed periodically and shall be valid for at least one hundred eighty days and not more 21 than one year from the expiration date of the ~~[originally]~~ previously issued full order of 22 protection. If the court has made specific written findings that the respondent poses a 23 serious danger to the physical or mental health of the petitioner or of a minor household 24 member of the petitioner, the renewed protective order may be renewed periodically and 25 shall be valid for at least two years and up to the life of the respondent.

26 (3) The court may, upon finding that it is in the best interest of the parties, include a 27 provision that any full order of protection ~~[for one year]~~ shall be automatically ~~[renew]~~ renewed 28 for any term of renewal of a full order of protection as set forth in this section unless the 29 respondent requests a hearing by thirty days prior to the expiration of the order. If for good cause 30 a hearing cannot be held on the motion to renew or the objection to an automatic renewal of the 31 full order of protection prior to the expiration date of the originally issued full order of 32 protection, an ex parte order of protection may be issued until a hearing is held on the motion.

33 When an automatic renewal is not authorized, upon motion by the petitioner, and after a hearing 34 by the court, the second full order of protection may be renewed for an additional period of time 35 the court deems appropriate, except that the protective order shall be valid for ~~[at least one~~ 36 ~~hundred eighty days and not more than one year]~~ any term of renewal of a full order as set
37 forth in this section. For purposes of this subsection, a finding by the court of a subsequent act 38 of domestic violence, stalking, or sexual assault is not required for a renewal order of protection.

39 (4) In determining under this section whether a respondent poses a serious danger 40 to the physical or mental health of a petitioner or of a minor household member of the 41 petitioner, the court shall consider all relevant evidence including, but not limited to:

42 (a) The weight of the evidence;

43 (b) The respondent's history of inflicting or causing physical harm, bodily injury, 44 or assault;

45 (c) The respondent's history of stalking or causing fear of physical harm, bodily 46 injury, or assault on the petitioner or a minor household member of the petitioner;

47 (d) The respondent's criminal record;

48 (e) Whether any prior full orders of adult or child protection have been issued 49 against the respondent;

50 (f) Whether the respondent has been found guilty of any dangerous felony under 51 Missouri law; and

52 (g) Whether the respondent violated any term or terms of probation or parole or 53 violated any term of a prior full or temporary order of protection and which violated terms 54 were intended to protect the petitioner or a minor household member of the petitioner.

55 (5) If a court finds that a respondent poses a serious risk to the physical or mental 56 health of the petitioner or of a minor household member of the petitioner, the court shall 57 not modify such order until a period of at least two years from the date the original full 58 order was issued and only after the court makes specific written findings after a hearing 59 held that the respondent has shown proof of treatment and rehabilitation and that the 60 respondent no longer poses a serious danger to the petitioner or to a minor household 61 member of the petitioner.

62 2. The court shall cause a copy of the petition and notice of the date set for the hearing 63 on such petition and any ex parte order of protection to be served upon the respondent as 64 provided by law or by any sheriff or police officer at least three days prior to such hearing. The 65 court shall cause a copy of any full order of protection to be served upon or mailed by certified 66 mail to the respondent at the respondent's last known address. Notice of an ex parte or full order

67 of protection shall be served at the earliest time, and service of such notice shall take priority 68 over service in other actions, except those of a similar emergency nature. Failure to serve or mail 69 a copy of the full order of protection to the respondent shall not affect the validity or 70 enforceability of a full order of protection.

71 3. A copy of any order of protection granted pursuant to sections 455.010 to 455.085 72 shall be issued to the petitioner and to the local law enforcement agency in the jurisdiction where 73 the petitioner resides. The clerk shall also issue a copy of any order of protection to the local law 74 enforcement agency responsible for maintaining the Missouri uniform law enforcement system 75 or any other comparable law enforcement system the same day the order is granted. The law 76 enforcement agency responsible for maintaining MULES shall, for purposes of verification, 77 within twenty-four hours from the time the order is granted, enter information contained in the 78 order including but not limited to any orders regarding child custody or visitation and all 79 specifics as to times and dates of custody or visitation that are provided in the order. A notice 80 of expiration or of termination of any order of protection or any change in child custody or 81 visitation within that order shall be issued to the local law enforcement agency and to the law
82 enforcement agency responsible for maintaining MULES or any other comparable law 83 enforcement system. The law enforcement agency responsible for maintaining the applicable 84 law enforcement system shall enter such information in the system within twenty-four hours of 85 receipt of information evidencing such expiration or termination. The information contained in 86 an order of protection may be entered in the Missouri uniform law enforcement system or 87 comparable law enforcement system using a direct automated data transfer from the court 88 automated system to the law enforcement system.

89 4. The court shall cause a copy of any objection filed by the respondent and notice of the 90 date set for the hearing on such objection to an automatic renewal of a full order of protection 91 for a period of one year to be personally served upon the petitioner by personal process server 92 as provided by law or by a sheriff or police officer at least three days prior to such hearing. Such 93 service of process shall be served at the earliest time and shall take priority over service in other 94 actions except those of a similar emergency nature.

455.045. Any ex parte order of protection granted pursuant to sections 455.010 to 2 455.085 shall be to protect the petitioner from domestic violence, stalking, or sexual assault and 3 may include:

4 (1) Restraining the respondent from committing or threatening to commit domestic 5 violence, molesting, stalking, sexual assault, or disturbing the peace of the petitioner;

6 (2) Restraining the respondent from entering the premises of the dwelling unit of 7 petitioner when the dwelling unit is:

8 (a) Jointly owned, leased or rented or jointly occupied by both parties; or

- 9 (b) Owned, leased, rented or occupied by petitioner individually; or 10 (c) Jointly owned, leased or rented by petitioner and a person other than respondent; 11 provided, however, no spouse shall be denied relief pursuant to this section by reason of the 12 absence of a property interest in the dwelling unit; or 13 (d) Jointly occupied by the petitioner and a person other than the respondent; provided 14 that the respondent has no property interest in the dwelling unit; 15 (3) Restraining the respondent from communicating with the petitioner in any manner 16 or through any medium;
17 (4) A temporary order of custody of minor children where appropriate;
18 (5) A temporary order of possession of pets where appropriate.

455.050. 1. Any full or ex parte order of protection granted pursuant to sections 455.010
2 to 455.085 shall be to protect the petitioner from domestic violence, stalking, or sexual assault 3 and may include such terms as the court reasonably deems necessary to ensure the petitioner's 4 safety, including but not limited to:

5 (1) Temporarily enjoining the respondent from committing or threatening to commit 6 domestic violence, molesting, stalking, sexual assault, or disturbing the peace of the petitioner, 7 including violence against a pet;

8 (2) Temporarily enjoining the respondent from entering the premises of the dwelling unit 9 of the petitioner when the dwelling unit is:

10 (a) Jointly owned, leased or rented or jointly occupied by both parties; or

11 (b) Owned, leased, rented or occupied by petitioner individually; or 12 (c) Jointly owned, leased, rented or occupied by petitioner and a person other than 13 respondent; provided, however, no spouse shall be denied relief pursuant to this section by 14 reason of the absence of a property interest in the dwelling unit; or 15 (d) Jointly occupied by the petitioner and a person other than respondent; provided that 16 the respondent has no property interest in the dwelling unit; or 17 (3) Temporarily enjoining the respondent from communicating with the petitioner in any 18 manner or through any medium.

19 2. Mutual orders of protection are prohibited unless both parties have properly filed 20 written petitions and proper service has been made in accordance with sections 455.010 to 21 455.085.

22 3. When the court has, after a hearing for any full order of protection, issued an order of 23 protection, it may, in addition:

24 (1) Award custody of any minor child born to or adopted by the parties when the court 25 has jurisdiction over such child and no prior order regarding custody is pending or has been 26 made, and the best interests of the child require such order be issued;

- 27 (2) Establish a visitation schedule that is in the best interests of the child;
- 28 (3) Award child support in accordance with supreme court rule 88.01 and chapter 452;
- 29 (4) Award maintenance to petitioner when petitioner and respondent are lawfully married 30 in accordance with chapter 452;
- 31 (5) Order respondent to make or to continue to make rent or mortgage payments on a 32 residence occupied by the petitioner if the respondent is found to have a duty to support the 33 petitioner or other dependent household members;
- 34 (6) Order the respondent to pay the petitioner's rent at a residence other than the one 35 previously shared by the parties if the respondent is found to have a duty to support the petitioner 36 and the petitioner requests alternative housing;
- 37 (7) Order that the petitioner be given temporary possession of specified personal 38 property, such as automobiles, checkbooks, keys, and other personal effects;
- 39 (8) Prohibit the respondent from transferring, encumbering, or otherwise disposing of 40 specified property mutually owned or leased by the parties;
- 41 (9) Order the respondent to participate in a court-approved counseling program designed 42 to help batterers stop violent behavior or to participate in a substance abuse treatment program;
- 43 (10) Order the respondent to pay a reasonable fee for housing and other services that 44 have been provided or that are being provided to the petitioner by a shelter for victims of 45 domestic violence;
- 46 (11) Order the respondent to pay court costs;
- 47 (12) Order the respondent to pay the cost of medical treatment and services that have 48 been provided or that are being provided to the petitioner as a result of injuries sustained to the 49 petitioner by an act of domestic violence committed by the respondent;
- 50 (13) Award possession and care of any pet, along with any moneys necessary to 51 cover medical costs that may have resulted from abuse of the pet.
- 52 4. A verified petition seeking orders for maintenance, support, custody, visitation, 53 payment of rent, payment of monetary compensation, possession of personal property, 54 prohibiting the transfer, encumbrance, or disposal of property, or payment for services of a 55 shelter for victims of domestic violence, shall contain allegations relating to those orders and 56 shall pray for the orders desired.
- 57 5. In making an award of custody, the court shall consider all relevant factors including 58 the presumption that the best interests of the child will be served by placing the child in the 59 custody and care of the nonabusive parent, unless there is evidence that both parents have 60 engaged in abusive behavior, in which case the court shall not consider this presumption but may 61 appoint a guardian ad litem or a court-appointed special advocate to represent the children in 62 accordance with chapter 452 and shall consider all other factors in accordance with chapter 452.

63 6. The court shall grant to the noncustodial parent rights to visitation with any minor 64 child born to or adopted by the parties, unless the court finds, after hearing, that visitation would 65 endanger the child's physical health, impair the child's emotional development or would 66 otherwise conflict with the best interests of the child, or that no visitation can be arranged which 67 would sufficiently protect the custodial parent from further domestic violence. The court may 68 appoint a guardian ad litem or court-appointed special advocate to represent the minor child in 69 accordance with chapter 452 whenever the custodial parent alleges that visitation with the 70 noncustodial parent will damage the minor child.

71 7. The court shall make an order requiring the noncustodial party to pay an amount 72 reasonable and necessary for the support of any child to whom the party owes a duty of support 73 when no prior order of support is outstanding and after all relevant factors have been considered, 74 in accordance with Missouri supreme court rule 88.01 and chapter 452.

75 8. The court may grant a maintenance order to a party for a period of time, not to exceed 76 one hundred eighty days. Any maintenance ordered by the court shall be in accordance with 77 chapter 452.

78 9. (1) The court may, in order to ensure that a petitioner can maintain an existing 79 wireless telephone number or numbers, issue an order, after notice and an opportunity to be 80 heard, directing a wireless service provider to transfer the billing responsibility for and rights to 81 the wireless telephone number or numbers to the petitioner, if the petitioner is not the wireless 82 service accountholder.

83 (2) (a) The order transferring billing responsibility for and rights to the wireless 84 telephone number or numbers to the petitioner shall list the name and billing telephone number 85 of the accountholder, the name and contact information of the person to whom the telephone 86 number or numbers will be transferred, and each telephone number to be transferred to that 87 person. The court shall ensure that the contact information of the petitioner is not provided to 88 the accountholder in proceedings held under this chapter.

89 (b) Upon issuance, a copy of the full order of protection shall be transmitted, either 90 electronically or by certified mail, to the wireless service provider's registered agent listed with 91 the secretary of state, or electronically to the email address provided by the wireless service
92 provider. Such transmittal shall constitute adequate notice for the wireless service provider 93 acting under this section and section 455.523.

94 (c) If the wireless service provider cannot operationally or technically effectuate the 95 order due to certain circumstances, the wireless service provider shall notify the petitioner within 96 three business days. Such circumstances shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

97 a. The accountholder has already terminated the account;

98 b. The differences in network technology prevent the functionality of a device on the 99 network; or

100 c. There are geographic or other limitations on network or service availability.

101 (3) (a) Upon transfer of billing responsibility for and rights to a wireless telephone 102 number or numbers to the petitioner under this subsection by a wireless service provider, the 103 petitioner shall assume all financial responsibility for the transferred wireless telephone number 104 or numbers, monthly service costs, and costs for any mobile device associated with the wireless 105 telephone number or numbers.

106 (b) This section shall not preclude a wireless service provider from applying any routine 107 and customary requirements for account establishment to the petitioner as part of this transfer 108 of billing responsibility for a wireless telephone number or numbers and any devices attached 109 to that number or numbers including, but not limited to, identification, financial information, and 110 customer preferences.

111 (4) This section shall not affect the ability of the court to apportion the assets and debts 112 of the parties as provided for in law, or the ability to determine the temporary use, possession, 113 and control of personal property.

114 (5) No cause of action shall lie against any wireless service provider, its officers, 115 employees, or agents, for actions taken in accordance with the terms of a court order issued under 116 this section.

117 (6) As used in this section and section 455.523, a "wireless service provider" means a 118 provider of commercial mobile service under Section 332(d) of the Federal Telecommunications 119 Act of 1996 (47 U.S.C. Section 151, et seq.).

 455.513. 1. The court may immediately issue an ex parte order of protection upon the 2 filing of a verified petition under sections 455.500 to 455.538, for good cause shown in the 3 petition, and upon finding that:

4 (1) No prior order regarding custody involving the respondent and the child is pending 5 or has been made; or

6 (2) The respondent is less than seventeen years of age.

7

8 An immediate and present danger of domestic violence, including danger to the child's pet, 9 stalking, or sexual assault to a child shall constitute good cause for purposes of this section. An 10 ex parte order of protection entered by the court shall be in effect until the time of the hearing.
11 The court shall deny the ex parte order and dismiss the petition if the petitioner is not authorized 12 to seek relief pursuant to section 455.505.

13 2. Upon the entry of the ex parte order of protection, the court shall enter its order 14 appointing a guardian ad litem or court-appointed special advocate to represent the child victim.

15 3. If the allegations in the petition would give rise to jurisdiction under section 211.031, 16 the court may direct the children's division to conduct an investigation and to provide appropriate 17 services. The division shall submit a written investigative report to the court and to the juvenile 18 officer within thirty days of being ordered to do so. The report shall be made available to the 19 parties and the guardian ad litem or court-appointed special advocate.

20 4. If the allegations in the petition would give rise to jurisdiction under section 211.031
21 because the respondent is less than seventeen years of age, the court may issue an ex parte order 22 and shall transfer the case to juvenile court for a hearing on a full order of protection. Service 23 of process shall be made pursuant to section 455.035.

 455.520. 1. Any ex parte order of protection granted under sections 455.500 to 455.538 2 shall be to protect the victim from domestic violence, including danger to the child's pet, 3 stalking, or sexual assault and may include such terms as the court reasonably deems necessary 4 to ensure the victim's safety, including but not limited to:

5 (1) Restraining the respondent from committing or threatening to commit domestic 6 violence, stalking, sexual assault, molesting, or disturbing the peace of the victim;

7 (2) Restraining the respondent from entering the family home of the victim except as 8 specifically authorized by the court;

9 (3) Restraining the respondent from communicating with the victim in any manner or 10 through any medium, except as specifically authorized by the court;

11 (4) A temporary order of custody of minor children;

12 (5) A temporary order of possession of pets where appropriate.

13 2. No ex parte order of protection excluding the respondent from the family home shall 14 be issued unless the court finds that:

15 (1) The order is in the best interests of the child or children remaining in the home;

16 (2) The verified allegations of domestic violence present a substantial risk to the child 17 or children unless the respondent is excluded; and 18 (3) A remaining adult family or household member is able to care adequately for the 19 child or children in the absence of the excluded party.

 455.523. 1. Any full order of protection granted under sections 455.500 to 455.538 shall 2 be to protect the victim from domestic violence, including danger to the child's pet, stalking, 3 and sexual assault may include such terms as the court reasonably deems necessary to ensure the
