

HCS HB 27 -- OPEN RECORDS LAW (Walsh (050))

COMMITTEE OF ORIGIN: Special Committee on Government
Accountability

This bill requires posting notice, required under Section 610.020, RSMo, of the Open Records Law commonly known as the Sunshine Law, of meeting times, dates, places, and agendas as well as minutes of open meetings on a public governmental body's website and social media pages if the governmental body manages a website and/or social media page. The social media notice requirement can be satisfied by posting a link to the webpage containing the notice.

In addition, public governmental bodies must post proposed and adopted rules, ordinances, laws, or regulations on their website and social media pages within 3 business days after the meeting at which they are proposed or adopted exclusive of weekends and holidays. The social media notice requirement can be satisfied by posting a link to the webpage containing the notice.
