

Journal of the House

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 4, 2023

The House was called to order at twelve o'clock noon by the Honorable John R. Ashcroft, Secretary of State.

"Behold," saith the Lord, "I have set before thee an open door." (Revelation 3:8)

Eternal God, our creator, as we enter the door of a new session and of a new legislative year, we pause in Your presence to offer You the devotion of our hearts and to pray for guidance, strength, and wisdom as we face the crucial moments, days and months that lie ahead.

In this high hour of a new beginning give to us, the representatives of our great citizens, a deep sense of responsibility, a broad spirit of understanding, an attitude of good will, and a real faith in You that we may govern well for the good of all and the freedom and justice may live long in our show-me state.

Bless our new Speaker and his family and staff, plus give him the insight of Solomon to guide the People's House on a path of unity and humility.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

ADDRESS BY SECRETARY OF STATE JOHN R. ASHCROFT

Good afternoon and welcome to the opening of the House of Representatives of the 102nd Regular Session of the Missouri General Assembly. Every two years, Missouri law grants the secretary of state the privilege of opening this venerable chamber and bridging the gap between the speaker from the previous session and the speaker whose leadership now commences. This is the third occasion on which I have been humbled to carry out this duty. I consider it one of the highest honors of my office.

Let me begin by thanking each of you for your service to the people of Missouri. It takes courage to put one's name on the ballot and months of hard work to get elected. And after that, there are weeks of travel, separation from your families, late nights and early mornings. It's clear you don't do it for the pay. Instead, every member of this chamber, regardless of political affiliation, is here with a genuine desire to improve the lives of Missourians. As citizen legislators from various backgrounds, you come together to do the valuable work of drafting our state's laws and shaping an environment of opportunity.

During the past two years, you have enacted landmark, beneficial legislation. From this historic dais, two years ago, I urged you to develop parent-empowering educational reform designed to enhance student achievement. You responded by creating the Missouri Empowerment Scholarship Accounts Program. As a result, these scholarships are enabling parents to direct educational opportunities for over a thousand Missouri students.

Two years ago, I asked for your help in reforming Missouri's election laws. You passed House Bill 1878, strengthening our election processes and instilling voter confidence by requiring government issued photo IDs, banning ballot drop boxes, designating paper ballots as the official ballots of Missouri, and much more. Thanks to your diligence, last November, the Show Me State showed America how safe, secure, and accessible elections are conducted. After almost 20 years we successfully implemented a real photo ID requirement in a general election, and it worked.

Other enactments signal your sensitivity to the needs of Missourians. The remote notarization bill you passed proved to be invaluable at the height of the COVID-19 Pandemic. It highlights your commitment to making it easier for Missourians to succeed. When Missourians were in need, your legislation sent the message that "help is on the way."

We gather today to open a new House, because the work of public service is an ongoing task. We gather as a state to address the unique character and opportunities of Missouri—its capabilities and its challenges. We know that federal government's "one size fits all solutions" are not the best answers. They are frequently both wasteful and costly failing to meet the needs of our communities and families. Missouri solutions you shape must be based on a proper understanding of the role of government. All Missourians must have equal opportunity to succeed in our culture. No Missourian should be deprived of the opportunity to reap the reward of hard work, creativity, productivity, innovation, and achievement. Missouri must embrace a culture of reward for merit which has made America the envied model for other cultures around the globe. With this in mind I encourage you to build on our successes.

One of our state's most important duties is to provide for the education of Missouri's children. In our most recent budget 7.4 billion dollars was spent on primary and secondary education, 21 percent of Missouri's budget. The most effective use of taxpayer dollars is to place parents in control of their children's educational choices. Parents know what is best for their children. Missouri's students are not factory widgets: they are unique individuals, endowed by their creator with gifts, abilities, and unlimited potentials if properly nurtured.

My wife Katie and I are raising four children here in Jefferson City. Our eldest attends a local public high school while our three younger children attend a private school at our family's personal expense. It is past time for all parents in this state to have the same opportunity to choose the educational environment best suited to fulfill the needs of their children. Let me encourage you to enact legislation that will capitalize on the caring knowledge and expertise of Missouri's loving parents by expanding their control over their children's education.

We must also address the sobering crime pandemic that plagues our state. Many people do not feel safe in their communities. As legislators, you have the opportunity to improve public safety. We need truth in sentencing legislation.

Members of juries and witnesses at trials should not have to fear encounters with those convicted of serious crimes but prematurely released from custody without having served meaningful sentences. Safe communities rely on citizen participation in the justice system. Public safety requires cooperation with local law enforcement, who cannot be expected to achieve it alone. No one should have to move to live in a safe neighborhood.

You can make Missourians safer by strengthening our criminal justice system. We must ensure that criminals are held properly accountable in every jurisdiction in the state. Justice should never be denied by the inability to appoint a special prosecutor when necessary. Policies that promote rehabilitation combined with truth in sentencing and reforming our special prosecutor appointment statute will profoundly improve the safety of our citizens. I would like to especially thank Webster County Sheriff Royce Cole and Platte County Prosecutor Eric Zahn for their service and their hard work in these areas. They are in the chamber today and I would ask that they stand and be recognized.

Since the authority of our republic is derived from the informed consent of the citizens, everything we do should rest on the foundations of transparency and accountability. The appropriations process is a bulwark of clear transparency and focused accountability. This hard work requires definition of proposed expenditures and a defense of previous spending. Perhaps the informed consent of the governed is most important regarding issues of taxation. I wholeheartedly encourage you to propose to Missourians a constitutional amendment that would ban general tax increases without a vote of the people.

As elected public servants, it is our calling to maximize liberty and opportunity for all Missourians while striving to increase the effectiveness of our governmental operations. Thank you for your dedicated service to our great state. May God bless and guide you and your families and may God bless the great people of the great state of Missouri.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

ADDRESS BY TEMPORARY SPEAKER CHRIS DINKINS

Secretary Ashcroft, thank you. And to my colleagues, thank you for giving me the honor and the opportunity to stand at this dais and preside over this momentous occasion as we begin the 102nd General Assembly.

To the Gentleman from Ozark, thank you for friendship and your support. To my family, thank you for standing with me and for being willing to sacrifice as I have followed this path of public service.

As I stand here before you today, I do so with a great deal of pride...pride in being the first woman to represent my district...pride in being one of the only Lakota Sioux to serve in the Missouri legislature...and pride in having the trust of my constituents to serve as their voice here in the people's house.

Just by being here today, we've all been given the opportunity of a lifetime...an opportunity to do great things for our state...an opportunity to make a real difference in the lives of the people who have chosen us to serve.

I will never forget those who have given me this opportunity and I will work each and every day to honor the trust they have placed in me.

I know too that I would not be here today without the inspiration given to me by my grandfather. It was during World War II that he endured unspeakable horrors as a Prisoner of War at the Berga concentration camp. But even as he suffered in ways most of us cannot imagine, his commitment to service never wavered and his belief in the greatness of our nation never faded.

My grandfather's story and his love for our country and our state encouraged me to pursue a life of service.

And today, with each decision I make, I think about the dedication and the perseverance of Americans like my grandfather and I'm inspired to work even harder to serve our state and our nation.

I know all of you in this room today feel the same and I want to remind all of you, regardless of which side of the aisle you're on, that we are here to serve the constituents in our district and the people of this state and we must never forget that.

Yes, there will be days when we argue, fight, and debate but may we never forget we are here to be the voice of those we represent and may we all pledge to find that common ground where we can do what is best and what is right for Missouri.

Thank you all so much. I am honored to serve with each and every one of you and wish us all great success for this session.

May God bless our state, our country and all of you here today.

NOMINATIONS FOR SPEAKER

Representative Kelly (141) nominated Representative Dean Plocher as Speaker of the House.

Representative Roberts seconded the nomination.

Representative Brown (27) nominated Representative Crystal Quade as Speaker of the House.

Representative Aune seconded the nomination.

Representative Quade withdrew her nomination.

Representative Patterson moved that nominations cease and Representative Plocher be elected by acclamation.

Which motion was adopted.

The following committee was appointed to escort Representative Plocher to the dais: Representatives Francis, Buchheit-Courtway, Houx, Knight, Gregory, Brown (16), Sharp (37), Proudie, Butz and Brown (87).

Representative Plocher subscribed to the oath of office, which was administered by the Honorable Mary R. Russell, Judge of the Supreme Court of Missouri.

Speaker Plocher assumed the Chair.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER DEAN PLOCHER

Congratulations to each and every one of you!

It is through hard work, determination, and a passion for serving others that you have earned the title of State Representative. I want to thank all of you so much for your support, and for the confidence you have placed in me to serve as your Speaker. It is an honor and privilege to serve with you, and to serve the State of Missouri during this 102nd General Assembly. It has been an honor to serve alongside those who have left the House, some of whom are with us today.

Each of us arrived here to serve our great state from a similar path. Through effort, listening to Missourians, belief in democracy, sacrifice, and help.

We are blessed to have our families and friends who have supported us in this journey and our commitment to public service. I hope the time spent in this Chamber will be some of the most rewarding moments of our lives. Our families and friends, and their efforts, and their sacrifices, make this possible for us.

There are no amount of words I can use to fully describe my appreciation for my wife, Rebecca. It is only because of her countless efforts and unwavering commitment that I am able to serve in the people's house.

She has believed in me every step of the way. She is my biggest supporter but also the one who keeps me humble and focused. She has tirelessly participated/contributed/worked in so many ways, so I can stand here and have the honor of holding this office. She is the one deserving of so much more. I am blessed beyond measure to have her in my life. She is my partner and best friend.

Rebecca, I love you dearly, and I know that we accomplished this together because of all you have done for me and our family! I am eternally grateful.

Would you please join me in a round of applause for all of our significant others and loved ones who have made our service here possible.

Those that know me, know Rebecca, and you know we are fortunate to have two great children, Owen and Stella. Rebecca and I began this journey believing that being a State Representative was not a career choice, but a call to serve a greater cause. We did so because we had children and believe strongly in giving them the same opportunities we have had.

Having children and witnessing current events gave us a sense of urgency, so all of our children can pursue and achieve the American Dream.

American democracy is not free. We each have to work and sacrifice to ensure and protect our representative government and these sacred values of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Owen and Stella were young when I first entered public service. I am grateful for their support for this work. They have helped in so many ways. I am so very proud of them for all they are doing and how they are growing up.

I love you, Owen and Stella!

You remind me every day why we are here—to leave the next generation of Missourians with more opportunities, to create a tomorrow that is better than today, and to give all of those that follow us the freedom and opportunity to achieve their own American Dream.

I am fortunate, too, to have parents who placed great emphasis on education, the value of personal responsibility, and hard work. My mother is with us today. Thank you for everything, mom.

I'm eternally grateful for my parents' sacrifices. They believed in a better future for their children and passed that legacy onto me.

My father, while not with us, has left an indelible memory residing in me and I will do my best to carry on his legacy.

Let me also welcome my other family members with us today: my sister-in-law, Stacy; her husband, Kevin; and their children, Nora & Jillian.

Not with us today are my father & mother-in-law, Vince & Linda, who likewise believed in public service and passed their values on to my wife and believed in me from the beginning.

My aunt and cousins who traveled from San Diego, and my other family members, I am grateful we are able to be together today.

To my friends and supporters who have stood by me on this journey, thank you for everything you've done to make this day possible.

And let me share one final but incredibly important thank you. To the person who has worked tirelessly to help not only me, but all of you - Diana Hennerich. No one in this building is more dedicated or more capable than Diana. Diana, thank you!

All of us serving in this amazing building know that we do not serve alone. We are surrounded by those dedicated to serving Missouri.

From our staff to our research analysts and the bill drafters, who make our ideas for legislation a reality, to the ones who maintain the beauty of these halls and this Chamber day after day, and to our staff who work behind the scenes to make all of this possible: they are the ones who provide the resources and support we need to succeed, and they work with us to make Missouri an even better place to call home.

Please join me in thanking each of them.

Being here is a call to serve. And when you are here, you don't just go home and forget about the day. Rather, our efforts when working to pass a bill require patience and persistence, all of which seemingly reverberate for months from January to May, and often for years, as failure is common and success is rare.

Democracy requires diligence. Thoughtful, well-vetted legislation takes time. It's a process in which we all have a part to play.

Today, we reaffirm our belief in this process, in our belief in democracy, and responsible, effective, smaller government that protects our individual freedoms.

We are all participants in this great experiment, where we have the freedom to discuss our differences in opinion. We are blessed to live in a country with a Bill of Rights that guarantees those freedoms.

Even in dissent, we try to find common ground, to work for democracy, and work for our Missouri values to preserve the American Dream for future generations.

As Speaker, this is my charge to keep. I am mindful of the responsibilities that come with democracy and freedom.

The American Dream is achieved through hard work, commitment to freedom, education, as well as individual and fiscal responsibility. I will work toward an agenda that promotes each of these values because they empower Missourians.

Over the last several years, the Missouri Legislature has:

- Cut taxes – The largest in Missouri's history.
- Strengthened Missouri's agricultural industry, and protected our farmers and our individual property rights.
- Ensured every patient has the right to have an advocate by their side in a hospital.
- Preserved the integrity of our elections and every Missourian's vote.
- Prioritized a fiscally responsible state budget that invested in education at record levels.
- And we have witnessed Missouri's lowest unemployment rate in our history, well below the national average.

This has benefited every Missourian!

But even as Missouri has thrived and succeeded in so many areas, we have also experienced unprecedented challenges such as COVID and a greater, almost suffocating influence from our federal government threatening the very concept of federalism.

We've seen the devastating effects of violent crime and dangerous streets in our communities. Missourians should not have to contend with violent crime. Families and children should not have to live in fear. Small businesses should not have to worry about damage to property or threats to employees.

Not only are there innocent victims, but such crime further destabilizes our families and communities, affecting all of us.

I care deeply about every Missourian who has been a victim of a crime. I understand why they have lost trust in dysfunctional local governments where some officials refuse to prosecute violent offenders. I sympathize with these families who have seen their streets become less and less safe as crime has enveloped their communities.

We cannot be bystanders as unchecked crime causes the systematic destruction of our proud state. It must be a priority of this body to provide the resources and enact common sense reforms to protect every Missouri community. There is no excuse for inaction.

I know this task won't be easy. Bold actions in this building are an open invitation to critics resistant to change. But Missourians are ready for real action.

Missourians deserve the opportunities that come with safe, growing communities. And they are ready for us to lead.

We also know the key to opportunity starts with access to education. Missourians should have opportunities to choose where they send their children for a high-quality education, and parents should have a stronger voice as it relates to the substance of what is taught to their kids each day.

For too long our teachers have been compensated by an out-of-date pay scale. It's a flawed system that rewards time served instead of output and innovation.

Teaching is difficult and our State needs to reward teachers for success so our children have access both to great teachers and choices for education.

Making key, strategic investments is necessary to prepare the next generation for the jobs of tomorrow. I am confident we can do this and hold the line on our fiscally responsible budget.

Today, Missouri is sitting on the largest budget surplus in our state's history – 5 to 6 billion dollars.

As a fiscal conservative, I believe government should provide responsible infrastructure spending. I also know that our citizens are the best stewards of their money, and I believe we can build on the tax cuts from last year's Special Session.

There is more room to return money to Missouri taxpayers! This is money that hardworking Missourians have earned. It is in fact their money.

Reducing our tax burden will make Missouri even more competitive to recruit a talented workforce, to build prosperous communities, grow small businesses, and create more opportunities for all.

We must also capitalize on our strengths. In the real estate market location is everything. Missouri must do a better job of building on our geographical advantages!

Missouri is within 500 miles of almost half of our country's population and 44% of our country's manufacturing. We're also the home of North America's second largest, and most efficient inland port system.

Missouri's location places us in an essential position to move material, goods, and people across our country. We must do a better job and embrace this competitive advantage.

Missouri is also a leader in innovation.

We are the home of cutting-edge advancement in agriculture, bioscience, geospatial technology, national defense, and logistics.

There are few places that can rival Missouri when it comes to bioscience. St. Louis alone has over 1,000 plant science PhD's and more than 700 bioscience companies.

St. Louis is also home to our new National Geospatial Intelligence Agency Headquarters West.

It's also where some of the world's most advanced fighter jets are built that provide security to our nation and to our allies around the world.

The cutting-edge development taking place today adds to Missouri's rich history in aviation and makes our state one of the top aerospace manufacturing providers in the country.

Stretching from Kansas City to Columbia, the Animal Health Corridor has over 300 animal health companies, representing the largest such concentration in the world.

Columbia, the home of MU, operates the country's most powerful university research nuclear reactor. This reactor produces cutting-edge cancer therapies, and life-saving medicines that are only produced there, offering Missourians better access to innovative medical care.

Springfield is one of our State's leading manufacturing hubs with an impressive 33% job growth rate and home to leading transportation carriers.

And when you look outside our metropolitan areas, you see this same level of success and innovation all across rural Missouri.

Missouri, which is second in the nation with its nearly 100,000 farms, is blessed with a rich history and proud tradition of national prominence in the field of agriculture.

That tradition is carried on today by farmers whose hard work proudly places our state in the top 10 nationally in 12 significant commodities, including everything from soybeans, corn, cotton, and rice to beef cows, turkeys, hogs, and chickens.

These are just but a few examples of what makes Missouri uniquely positioned to be a world competitor and leader.

Our state is great in so many ways, but we know we have more work to do!

Here in this magnificent Chamber and this beautiful building, we will take on these challenges. We are the stewards of time passing through this Chamber and we must use this time wisely to influence the trajectory of our state.

This incredible structure, decorated with majestic marble columns and beautiful murals, is the product of the work of Missourians more than 100 years ago, Missourians who had vision: 100 years later their vision holds true and this building still serves the needs of the people.

But we also know that, just as those who went before us provided vision in this grand building, we too must provide vision for our state. Our State needs to continue to craft a vision of what it can and should be so it can meet the needs of future generations and our way of life.

Carved into the entrance of the lower rotunda, there is an inscription taken from the Book of Proverbs. It reads, “Where there is no vision the people perish.”

It’s a powerful reminder that our job as public servants is not simply to find solutions to the problems as they arise, but also to craft and share our vision that will guide our state into the next 100 years, and ensure our future is one filled with success and prosperity.

As we move forward into this 2023 legislative session, I know there are tough issues we must tackle, but there are also areas we can address to ensure our state has a brighter tomorrow.

Missouri is well positioned. Look around us, to all of us having the honor and privilege to serve. We have a broad array of Missouri citizens in the people’s house from every corner of Missouri and with a variety of backgrounds and experiences. We have all we need to get things accomplished for Missourians.

Let the words inscribed by those that went before us inspire us. Let our Missouri values guide us. And let our ability to work together help us craft Missouri’s vision for the next 100 years.

Together we can continue to improve our great State, educate our children, grow our economy, keep our streets safe, preserve the American Dream, and build a more prosperous Missouri with opportunities for all Missourians and the generations to come. For United We Stand, Divided We Fall!

Thank you! God Bless you, the United States of America and the Great State of Missouri!

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER PRO TEM MIKE HENDERSON

I am deeply humbled and honored to stand here today. I want to thank my colleagues for your trust and support. Thank you for believing in me. I promise that I will do everything I can to make your experience here a positive one.

To my beautiful wife of 39 years, Cheri, I cannot put into words what your love and encouragement has meant to me. Thank you for believing in me and standing by me.

To my family and friends who have made the trip to Jefferson City to join us; my daughter, Amanda; my son, Sean; and my grandson, Charlie, the state's biggest Chiefs fan, thank you. It means the world to have you here today.

Being a public servant keeps all of us away from our families for weeks at a time. Yet those families always support us from afar. I want to thank all the families here today who give up time with their loved ones to allow them to serve.

As we begin the 102nd General Assembly together I know we do so with a sense of excitement and feelings of hope. Hope that we will be effective advocates for the people of our districts. Hope that we can put our state on the path to grow and prosper for years to come. What we do here is not about us, it is about the people we represent. These next two years I will be here to work with and help you every step of the way. I am here to serve the body of the House.

My years of experience as a coach, teacher and administrator taught me a few things about leadership. Leadership is about listening, learning, and putting the needs of others before yours.

We will never find common ground to tackle tough issues unless we are willing to listen and learn from each other. We will never do what is truly best for our state until we commit to working for and with each other, rather than just advancing our own self-interest.

One of the greatest Missourians, Harry S Truman, put it best when he said, "It's amazing what we can accomplish when we do not care who gets the credit." Those are words for all public servants to live by.

My promise to you is, I will always be willing to listen and learn. That holds true for members from both sides of the aisle. The skill of listening is probably most important when we find ourselves on opposite sides of an issue. Together we will find a way to move the great state of Missouri forward!

Thank you for your support and for giving me this incredible opportunity! God bless you and the great state of Missouri!

Speaker Plocher resumed the Chair.

Pursuant to Section 9.141, RSMo, the United States Bill of Rights was read by Owen Plocher and Stella Plocher.

The written request shall state the deadline by which the state must comply with the federal mandate and what will happen if the state fails to take action by such date. A motion to have a bill placed upon the calendar shall be made within three legislative days after the bill is reported and when the sponsor of the bill is present or the motion is made by a member upon the sponsor's written request. If no such action is taken within such time, the bill shall lie on the table. If such a motion is sustained, the bill shall ~~stand automatically~~ be referred to a Committee on Rules for further action thereon.

- (a) Is of a controversial nature;
- (b) Makes a substantial policy change;
- (c) Increases net expenditures of the state;
- (d) Reduces net revenue of the state; or
- (e) Creates or expands a penalty provision.

If it has been determined by the regular standing committee that such bill is of a noncontroversial nature and meets all consent requirements, the regular standing committee shall report the bill to the Committee on Consent and House Procedure as "Do Pass - Consent". The Committee on Consent and House Procedure may decide by a majority affirmative vote of those present whether to place the bill on the appropriate consent calendar.

(2) Procedure on House Bills. If the regular standing committee shall so determine, the appropriate committee report shall include a request that a bill be placed on the House Consent Calendar for Perfection. Any bill so reported shall automatically be referred to the Committee on Consent and House Procedure. Any bill reported by the Committee on Consent and House Procedure with the recommendation that it be placed on the House Consent Calendar for Perfection may be placed on that calendar if the Speaker concurs with the recommendation. If the Speaker does not concur, he or she may place the bill on the Perfection Calendar. After such bill has remained on the House Consent Calendar for Perfection for five legislative days, it shall be ordered perfected and advanced to the House Consent Calendar for Third Reading and Final Passage without further action of the House, unless five members, with at least two from each political party, have filed written objection with the Chief Clerk. If such objections are filed, the bill shall be placed on the House Bills to be Perfected and Printed Calendar. An objection made by five members under this rule cannot be rescinded.

(3) Senate Bills - Consent. When the Senate passes a bill by its procedure for consent bills, such bill shall be considered for treatment as a consent bill by the House committee without further request; provided however, that the same committee procedures, votes, and requirements for House Bills being considered for consent shall be applied to Senate Bills being considered for consent. A Senate Bill may be considered by the committee for consent even if it was not a consent bill in the Senate.

(4) Procedure on Senate Bills. Senate Bills passed out of the appropriate House regular standing committee and the Committee on Consent and House Procedure with the request that the bill be placed on the Senate Bills for Third Reading and Final Passage - Consent Calendar are subject to the five member objection provision of this rule.

(6) Amendments. House bills may be considered for consent after they are amended in committee but may not be amended on the floor of the House.

Senate consent bills may be amended in committee but not on the floor of the House unless the Senate Rules allow amendment of House consent bills on the floor of the Senate, in which case Senate consent bills may be amended on the floor of the House. House committee amendments to Senate consent bills shall be deemed adopted on the fifth legislative day.

Rule 49. (1) In Writing and Distributed in Advance.

- (a) Proposed amendments shall be reduced to writing.
- (b) Every amendment shall be distributed in advance of the time the bill is initially taken up for consideration. An amendment shall be considered to have been distributed if it has been either transmitted

An amendment to a House Substitute shall be considered timely if it is distributed prior to the motion being made to adopt the House Substitute.

(c) The sponsor of an amendment that has been distributed may make technical corrections at the time the amendment is offered or under consideration. Any technical corrections shall be read in full by the clerk. Technical corrections shall be subject to a point of order that they are not truly technical in nature.

(e) Every proposed amendment to the amendment and substitute amendment may be offered after the time a bill is initially taken up for consideration but shall be distributed prior to the offeror being recognized for a motion on such amendment.

(f) Amendments shall be prepared by House Research or House Appropriations and filed with the Chief Clerk.

(2) What Amendments and Substitute Amendments are in Order. When a bill, motion, or proposition is under consideration, a motion to amend and a motion to amend that amendment shall be in order, and it also shall be in order to offer a further amendment by way of substitute for the original motion to amend, to which one amendment may be offered. No more than three amendments to the amendment, per amendment, shall be in order.

(a) It shall not be in order to offer a substitute amendment to an amendment to an amendment.

(b) When an amendment is offered, a substitute for that amendment is offered, and an amendment to the substitute is offered, it shall not be in order to offer a substitute for the amendment to the substitute.

(c) Any proposed amendment in the third degree shall be out of order.

(d) Any motion to adopt an amendment may be withdrawn by the sponsor before decision thereon.

(e) Once a bill has been amended, it shall be in the possession of the House.

(f) If a proposed amendment has been defeated, the same amendment shall not be proposed again. An amendment identical to one previously decided on the same bill is not in order, except for amendments to appropriations bills.

(3) Committee Substitutes Treated as Original. A House Committee Substitute shall be considered as an original bill for purposes of amendment.

(4) House Substitute. No House Substitute will be in order except those reported from the House Committee on Legislative Review. No House amendment which, in the opinion of the Speaker, is effectually replacing the underlying bill or committee substitute will be in order.

(a) A bill may be sent to the Committee on Legislative Review prior to the adoption of any House Committee Substitute; prior to the bill's perfection, if a House bill; or prior to third reading, if a Senate bill.

(b) A House Substitute shall take the form of an original bill and is subject to floor amendments, except that it shall not be subject to an amendment by a subsequent House Substitute.

(c) Any House Substitute reported from the Committee on Legislative Review shall lie on the calendar at least one legislative day in advance of consideration on the House floor.

(d) A House Substitute reported from the Committee on Legislative Review shall not be offered on the House floor in the form of an amendment.

(6) Appropriations Bills.

(a) No amendment to the appropriations bills of the state budget shall be in order if it increases the total amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the House appropriations bills. Any amendment that increases the amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the House appropriations bills shall be required to be submitted with a separate amendment that makes an equal reduction in general revenue or general revenue equivalent in the same bill or any other of the bills still pending. If the reduction is in another bill, the decreasing amendment shall be taken up first, and the increasing amendment may be taken up only if the decreasing amendment is adopted. When a pair of amendments is submitted, the decreasing amendment shall be required to clearly identify the corresponding increasing amendment.

(b) If a member's decreasing amendment is adopted and the same member's increasing amendment is defeated, the decreasing amendment's adoption is ~~void~~ moot.

(c) The offering and adoption of an amendment decreasing the amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated without a balancing increase creates no right of another member to offer an increasing amendment in any amount up to the amount of the decrease effected by the decreasing amendment, and no member may be recognized for the purpose of making such an amendment.

(d) For the perfection of the House appropriations bills of the state budget only, it shall be permissible to amend any line item as often as the House pleases, as long as prior adopted amendments to the line item are taken into account.

(e) Notwithstanding any rule to the contrary, neither substitute amendments nor amendments to amendments shall be in order for any appropriations bill other than technical corrections under Rule 49(1).

The substitute shall be handled on the floor of the House by the committee chair or any member designated by the committee chair. The Chief Clerk shall have an appropriate number of copies of the substitute printed. No committee substitute shall be called from the calendar of the House until the printed copies have been distributed for at least one legislative day. Amendments, if any, may be offered to the substitute before the vote on the motion to adopt the substitute is taken. If the substitute is defeated, the original bill shall be before the House for perfection and shall be considered and shall be handled on the floor by the original sponsor of the bill. Notwithstanding the provisions of this rule, the Speaker may, at any time, change the House handler of any bill or substitute unless the sponsor of the bill objects.

Rule 51. When amendments to any bill, motion, or proposition are pending, they shall be voted on in the following order:

(1) Amendments to the amendment are disposed of before the substitute is taken up. Only one amendment to the amendment is in order at one time; but as rapidly as one is disposed of by rejection or incorporation as a part of the amendment, another is in order as long as any member desires to offer one.

(2) Amendments to the substitute are next voted on, and may be offered, one at a time, and as rapidly as one is disposed of by rejection or incorporation as a part of the substitute amendment, another is in order as long as any member desires to offer one, until the substitute amendment is adopted.

(3) The substitute amendment, as amended, is next voted on. If the substitute amendment is adopted, the underlying amendment to which it was offered shall not be voted upon, but the substitute amendment shall become part of the bill.

(4) The amendment is voted on last. If any substitute has not been agreed to, the vote comes on the amendment as amended.

(5) The House Committee Substitute is next voted upon, after opportunity for amendment. If the House Committee Substitute is adopted, there shall be an additional vote for the perfection of the bill, as amended.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

GOVERNOR’S PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27, authorizes the Governor to control the rate at which any appropriation is expended by allotment and, further, authorizes the Governor to reduce the expenditures of the state or any of its agencies below their appropriations whenever the actual revenues are less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based; and

WHEREAS, in addition to the power to control the rate of expenditure established in Article IV, Section 27, three percent of each appropriation, with the exception of amounts for personal service to pay salaries fixed by law, shall be set aside pursuant to section 33.290, RSMo, as a reserve fund and not subject to expenditure except with the approval of the Governor; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.2, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly “whenever the rate at which any appropriation shall be expended is not equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation”; and

WHEREAS, due to a variety of factors, including the three percent reserve that is legally required by section 33.290, RSMo, the rate at which most appropriations are expended is not in “equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation”; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.3, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly “when the governor reduces one or more items or portions of items of appropriation of money as a result of actual revenues being less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based.”

NOW THEREFORE, I, Michael L. Parson, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27, do hereby make the following notification to the One Hundred First General Assembly of the State of Missouri:

I hereby notify the General Assembly, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27.2 of the Missouri Constitution, that through the first quarter of fiscal year 2023, the rate of expenditure for each of the appropriation lines in the fiscal year 2023 budget attached as Exhibit A is not in equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation.

I further notify the General Assembly, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27.3 of the Missouri Constitution, that I have taken no action to permanently reduce one or more items or portions of items of appropriation of money as a result of actual revenues being less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based in the fiscal year 2023 budget.
